nineteen hundred seventy three

Hi Anita!
You know, you really aren't that bad of a person
you can be nice (I think)
But seriously now, Hey!
I like your purple shoes
But did you know you're wearing STS colors? You
Traitor!! Not really!!
Have a nice summer

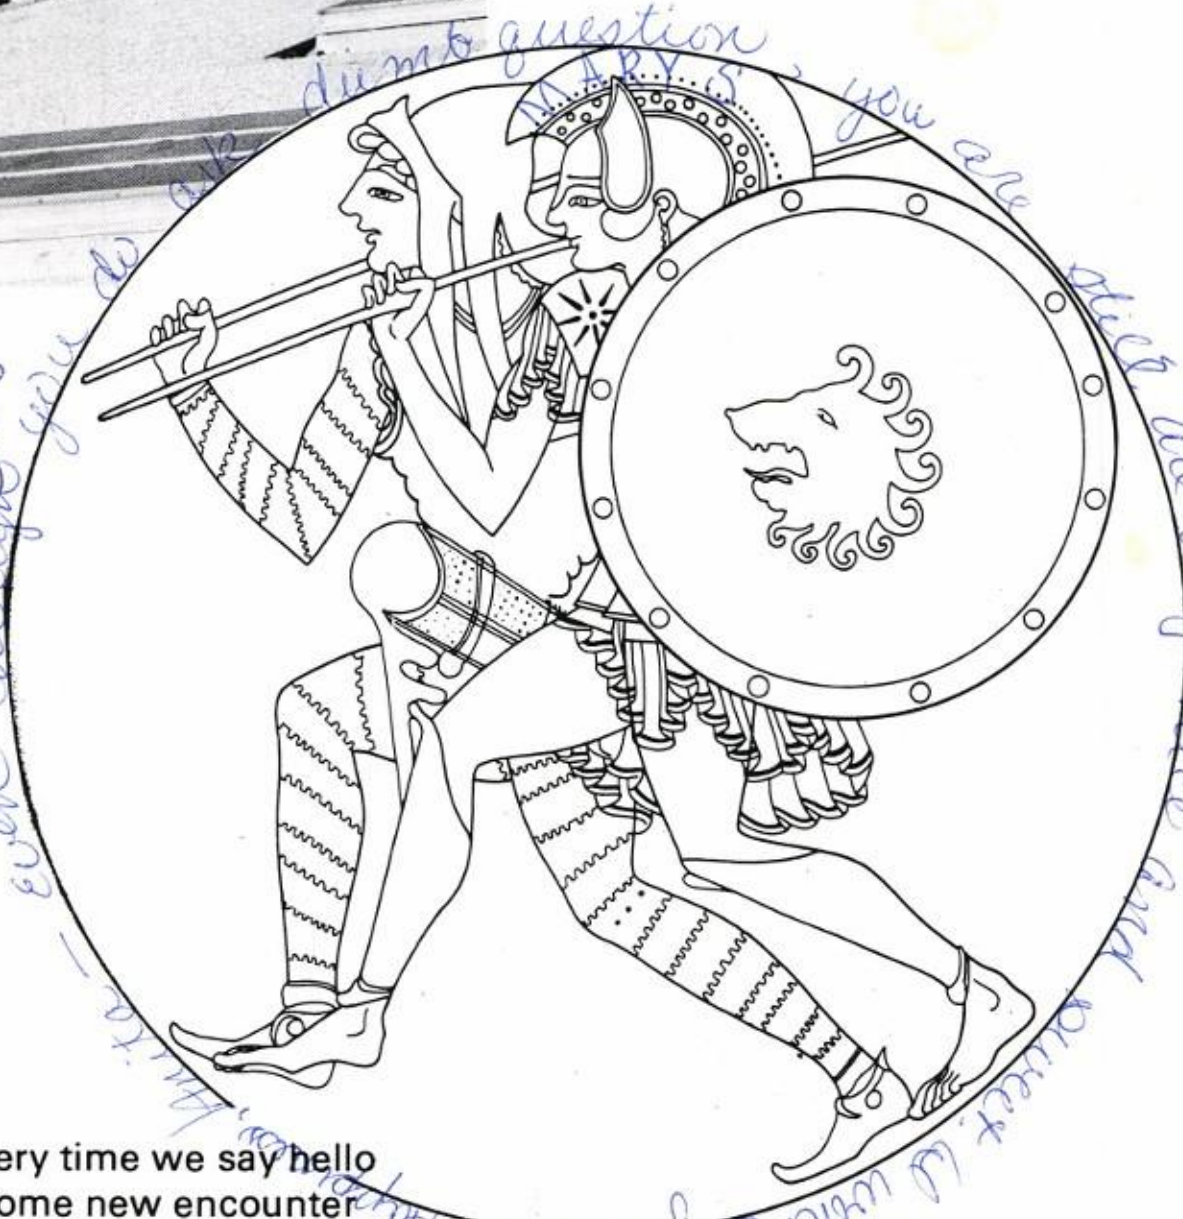

THIS BOOK
Belongs too

Anita
I really very glad I know you!
Hope to see you next year Be good!
'76, always
Lucy

even though you do ask dumb question
MARY S. you are still the very nice and sweet little girl from M. S.

"Every time we say hello
to some new encounter
we're on our way
toward goodbye.
Some distance
from the actual phrase
but moving toward it all the same.
The distance between those two words becomes a little less
as we grow older.
Be aware then that tomorrow
is only tomorrow..."

Time reaching on without end, aiming for infinity. There are no years and months, weeks and days, hours and minutes . . .

There are only
golden sunrises
and sunsets marking
time for learning,
time for dreaming,
time for loving.

Don't let you give up. I'll be there as your friend
always.

Each age that has passed
leaves the fragrance
of its existence
in poetry,
philosophy,
literature . . .

as long as there is REMEMBERING in the mind of man, there is no end to anything.

To
rita,
a real

There can be no goodbyes.
Each friend that passes into time remains a memory and each new day brings new faces,
new smiles,
new friends . . .

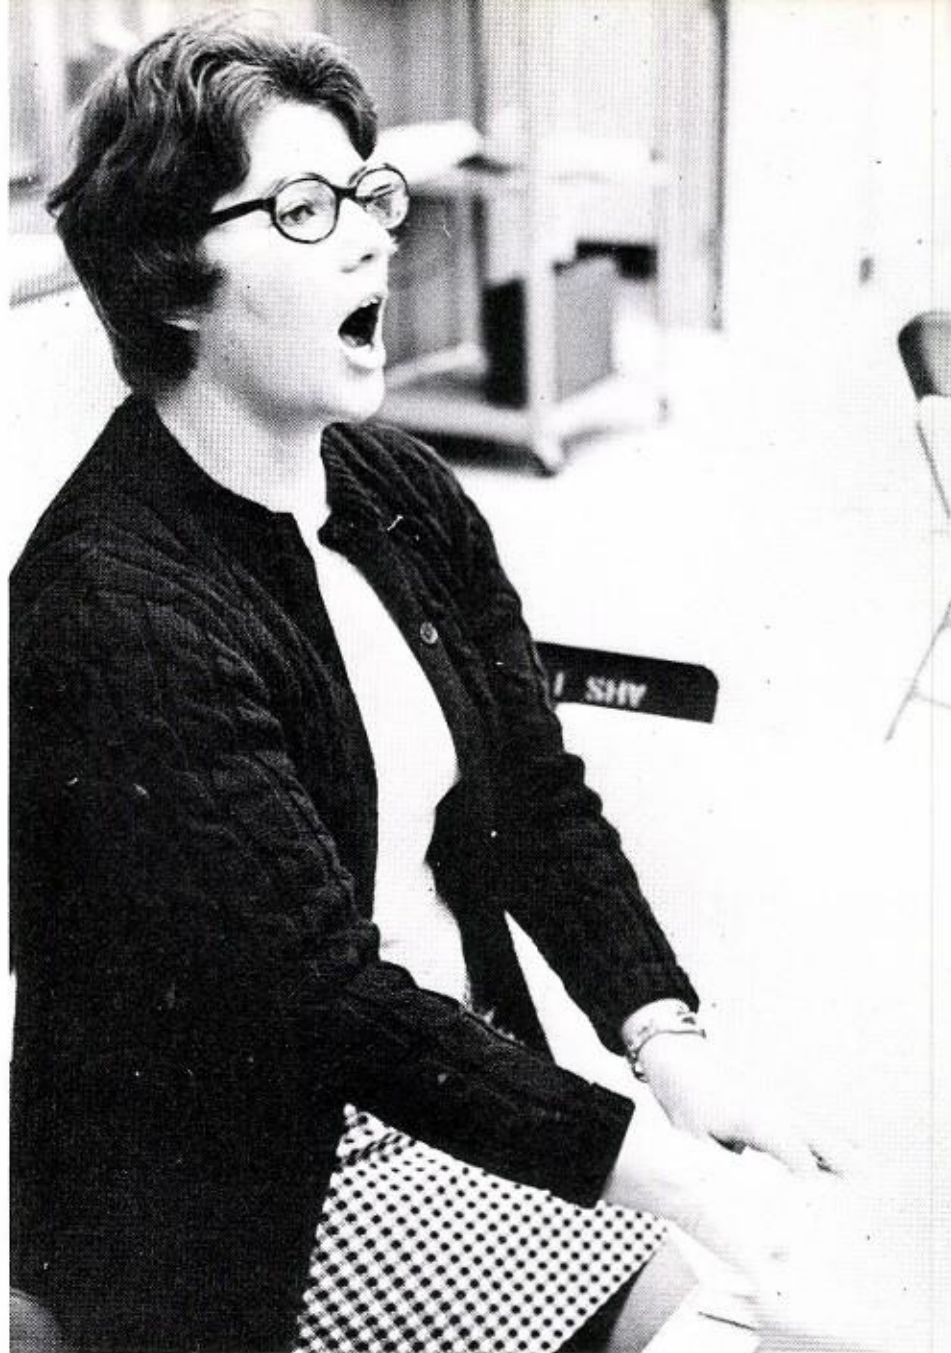

Thank you, Mrs. Di

She always gives-time, energy, talent. Time-directing many out-of-class rehearsals and performances. Energy-in trips to San Francisco several times a year to find new music for her choirs. Talent-in the hours of teaching she gives to all her students. Before concerts she worries endlessly, and after concerts she praises eloquently.

To the AFS students she is a friendly smile in a strange land. She welcomes them with warm understanding and guides them through the confusing life at Alisal.

To her choirs and to everyone at Alisal she is a fantastic person. There can be no one in her place. In return for all you have done Mrs. Di, we dedicate the 1973 Trojan yearbook to you.

Anita -
 Now for some serious writing 2+
 was fun having you in my
 P.E. class. Have fun over the summer. Don't do anything
 I wouldn't do. Be good and may God Bless.

a tear, a dream, a sigh of relief . . . Class of '73

Under the outstanding leadership of four industrious students, the Senior Class of '73 organized many exciting activities. The ever efficient officers, President-Brady Ryburn, Vice-President- Tom Yamashita, Secretary- Claudia Ward, and Treasurer- Mary Lowe, produced such excellent events as Bermuda Day, Halloween Day, Playnight, Christmas Ball, Nostalgia Day, Childhood Reunion Day, and many other days.

Always helpful, the advisors of the Class of '73 were Miss Blauert, Mr. Collins, and Mr. Puterbaugh.

As Brady Ryburn said, "The Class of '73 turned out to be one of the most spirited and active classes in the history of Alisal."

TO WORK, TO CARE, TO SUCCEED . . . Class of '74

Efficiency, hard work and merriment marked the year for the Junior Class of '74. The diligent officers: President- Willie Pura, Vice-President- Larry Ingram, Secretary- Denise Bolin, and Treasurer- May Domaloag, organized a successful playnight. After a perfect playnight, the Juniors settled down to other activities. Some of these activities were fund-raising. A candy sale and commanding the basketball concessions were a few of the money-makers the Juniors accomplished. The funds raised from these activities went towards an excellent Junior-Senior Prom. Special thanks to Miss Di Vall, Mr. Favero, and Mr. Romero, whose enthusiasm and spirit brought forth the ever present spirit within the Class of '74.

JUNIOR happenings

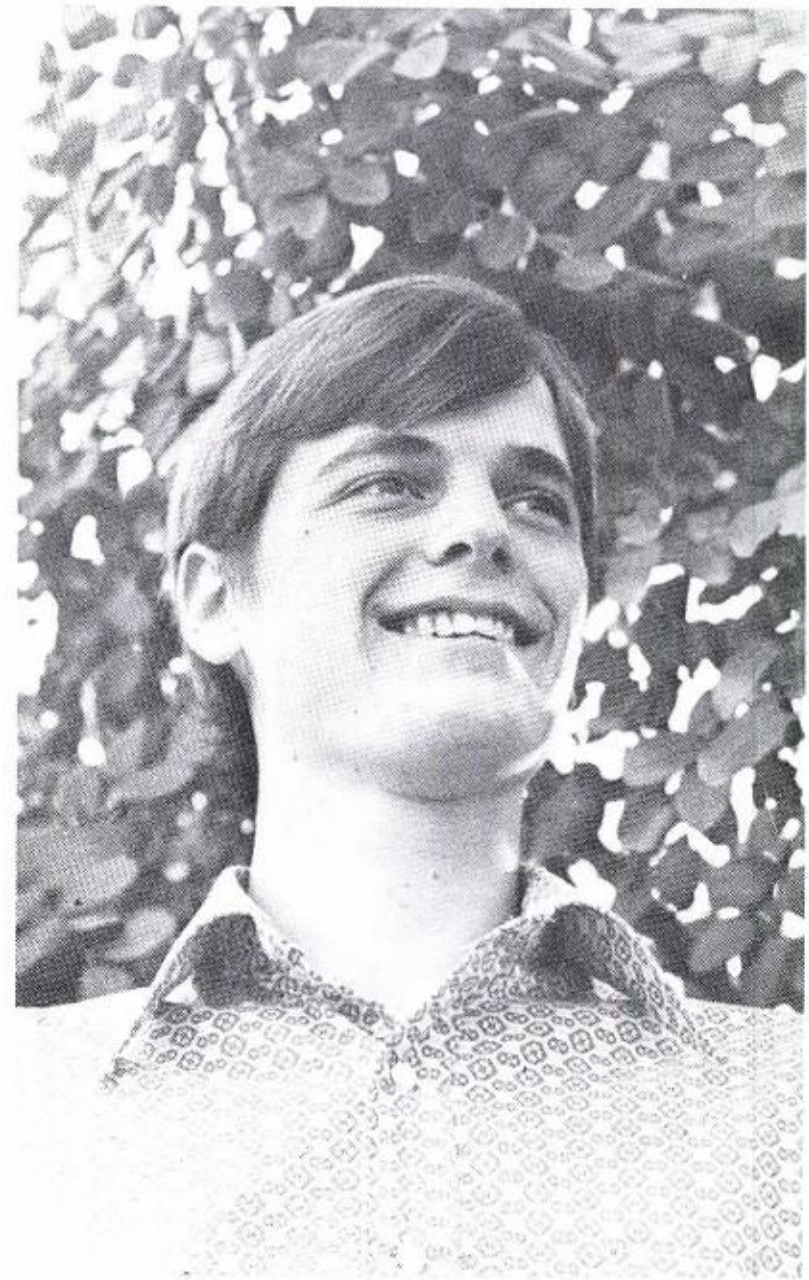

a vision, a challenge, a reality . . . Class of '75

Raising $1,000.00 for a fantastic Junior-Senior Prom was the main goal for the spirited, energetic class of '75. The Sophomore class strived to build their funds and started off the year with many highly successful car washes, benefit drawings, candy sales, bake sales, and a carnival booth. Among all the mass confusion of raising money, the Sophomores relaxed and enjoyed themselves at their playnite; dancing, gossiping, eating . . . and just having loads of fun. This year's officers, President; Phil Dyk, Vice-President; George Robles, and Secretary-Treasurer; Janice Haydon, put in much "behind the scene" effort to pull the class together. Without their advisors, Miss Alexander, Mr. Espinosa, and Mr. Mortensen, the class of '75 wouldn't have been able to "get-it-together" as well as they did!

Sophomores Cherish
the Memories in the Year 1973 . . .

To grow, to learn, to accomplish . . . Class of '76

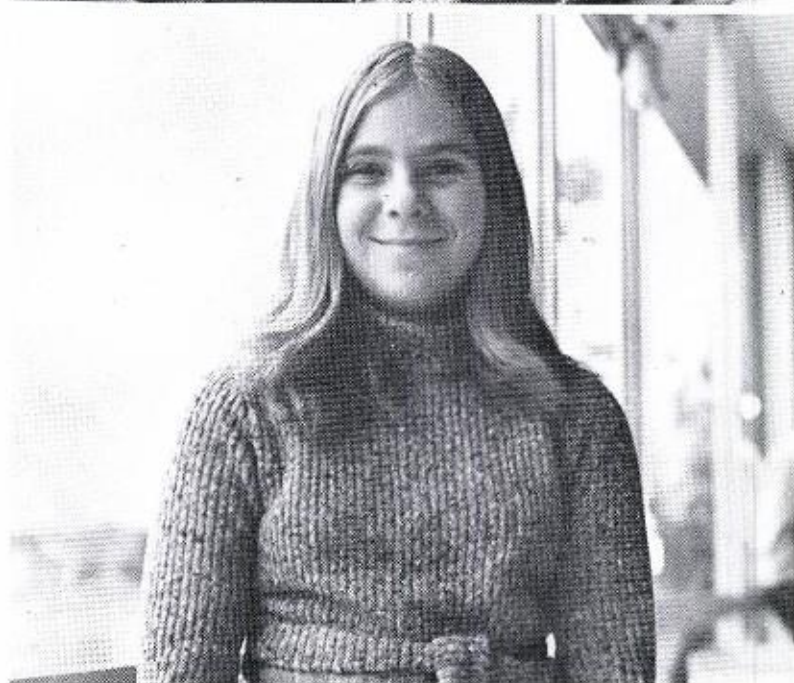

Organizing, planning and working were three words the Freshmen wouldn't let go. Car washes, a candy sale, and a playnight started their year successfully with the help of the officers and their advisor, Mr. Phil LeBlanc. 614 freshmen were under the leadership of Beth Dyk; President, Darren Chinn; Vice-President, Debbie De Pratti; Secretary-Treasurer and Mr. LeBlanc. For the Freshmen, this year has been pretty hectic yet helpful for the coming years.

Officers, Commissioners

This year Alisal has a fabulous group of active and able - working students to lead the school. With Mr. Poulsen advising them, the officers and commissioners did their absolute best to assist and lead the entire student body.

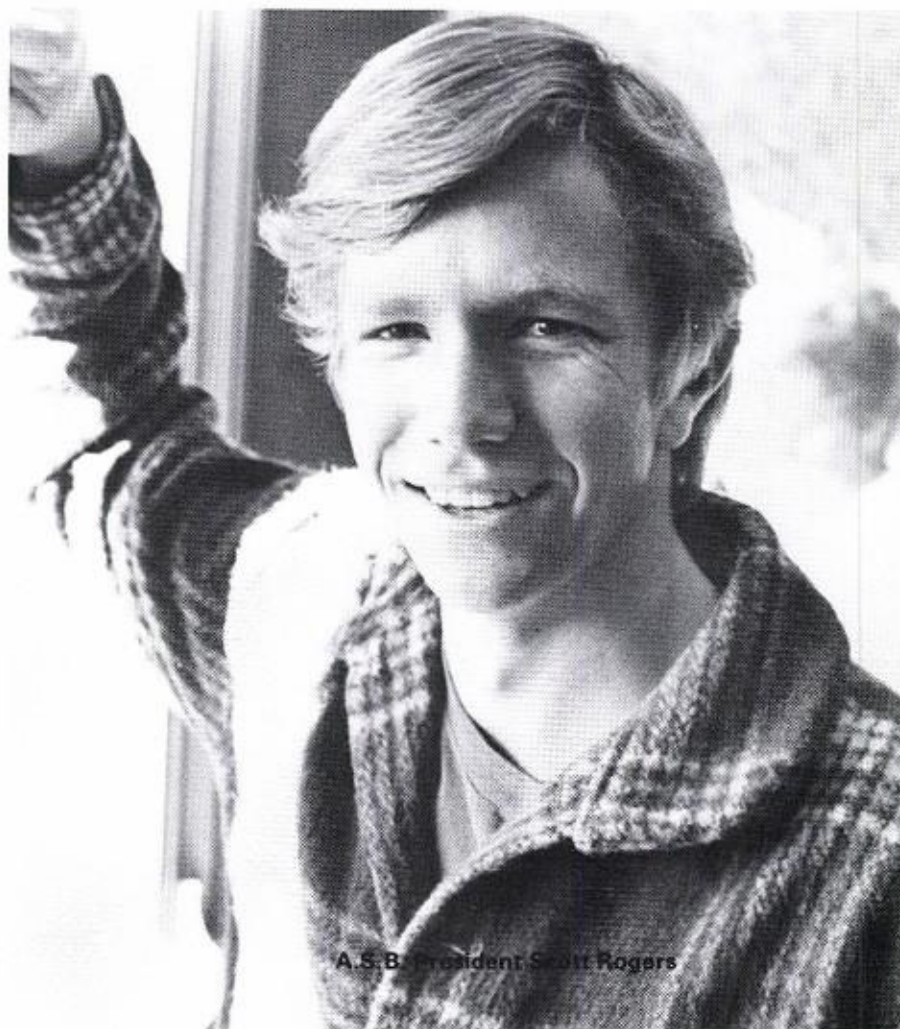

Activities that the officers and commissioners had this year included many enjoyable student body dances, hysterical and witty rally skits, and the most important of all, the Walk - A - Thon.

When asked what President Scott Rogers thought of being the student body president, he replied: Being president of a school of 2,100 people brings to light a number of pleasant as well as unpleasant issues. I have seen things that I do not like; some I have been able to change, others I will never be able to change. I must say that I have had many more pleasant experiences than unpleasant ones.

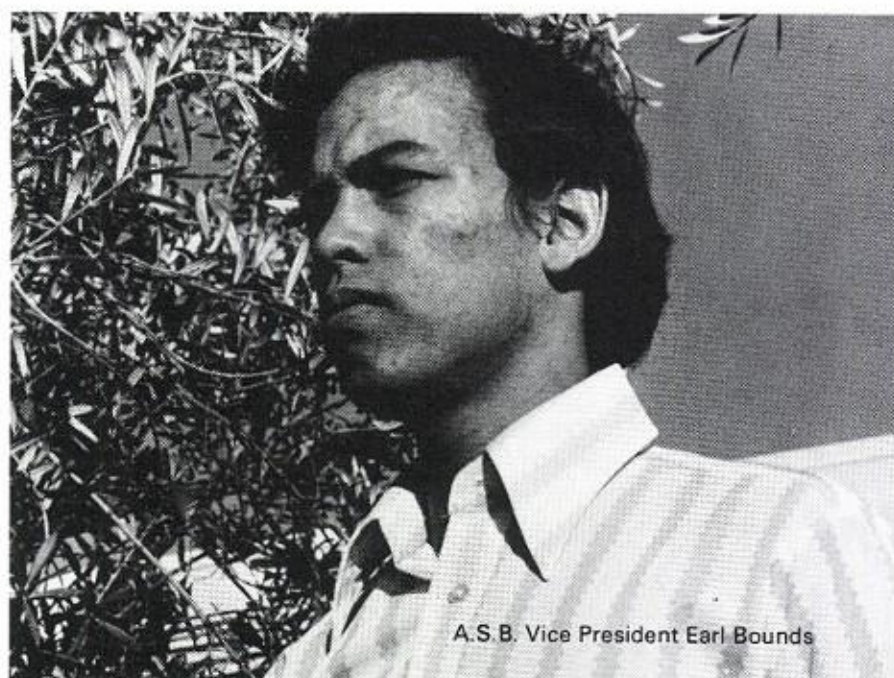

Concerning the people of this school, I have made many more friendships, and although I have lost the association with some friends of the years past, the friendships definitely still do and always will exist.

How the office has affected me as a person I cannot say; it is always hardest for one to objectively examine himself, but throughout the year I have learned more than in the previous 10 and I place an extreme value on that knowledge.

a Voice In Student Government . . .

homeroom Representatives

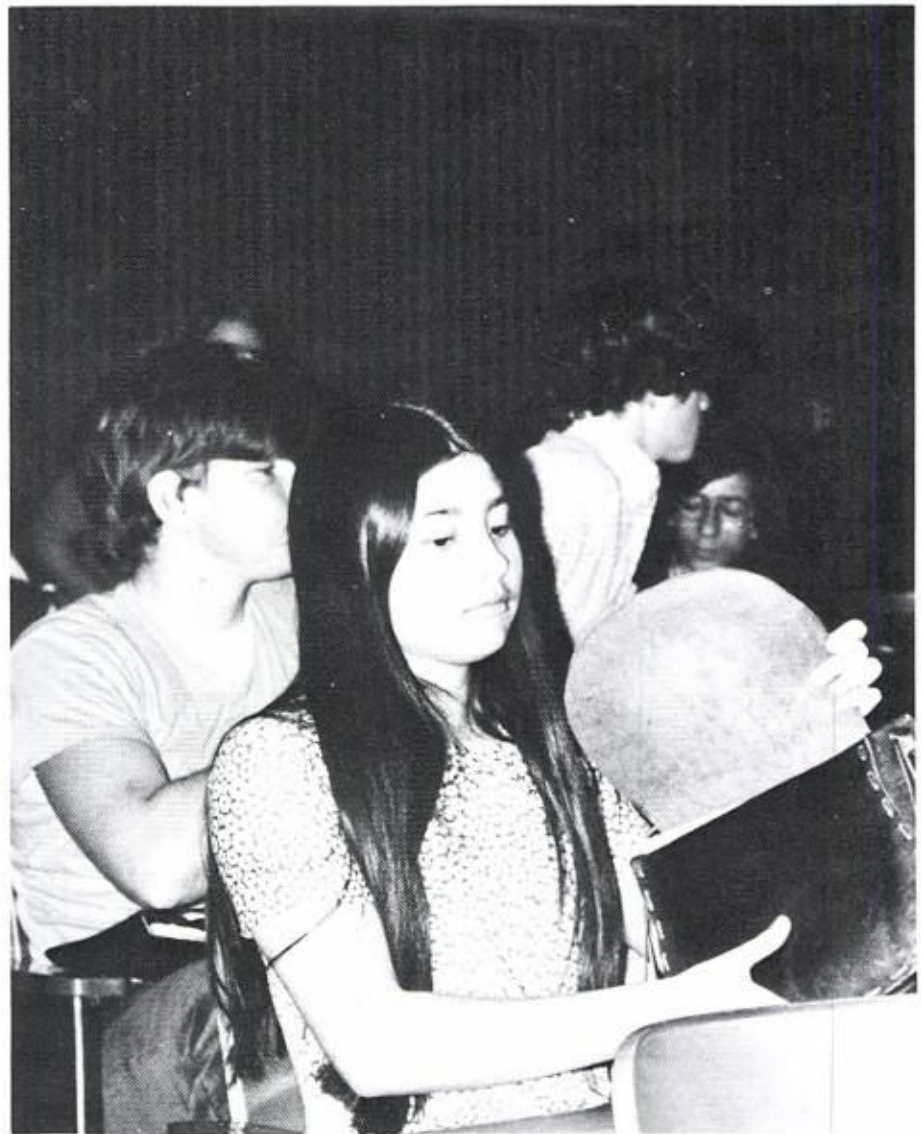

Want to know the latest news about what's going on around school? Ask a homeroom representative because he would know. A homeroom representative is a reliable student elected by his fellow third period peers. He attends commission meetings representing the voice of his homeroom class. Then he reports back what was discussed and what should be voted on. Special thanks should be given to these students who link the student body and commission together making Alisal a great school. What would we do without them?

Any suggestions or comments?

Faster than a speeding bullet, more powerful than a locomotive, able to leap tall buildings at a single bound No, it's not superman but . . . the songleaders of 1973. These girls have entertained the student body with various routines during the half time. We salute you, Songleaders of '73. Debbie Sartwell, their head songleader commented, "I really enjoyed being head songleader this year. Songleading is really a lot of fun, but it also takes a lot of work. I believe it's up to every member of the squad to make it the best."

Leading the student body into various group cheering were the Alisal cheerleaders. Through football and basketball games, the cheerleaders have kept the restless crowds entertained. These gals have captured the 1972 Football Jamboree Rooter's Trophy for the seventh time in a row which was a great accomplishment for them. The cheerleaders have done a fantastic job this year. Thanks for a job well done.

Routines, Practice, and Hard Work . . . Junior Varsity Cheerleaders

There is a lot more to the work of a cheerleader than most people seem to notice. It means giving up time to practice and learn new routines. The junior varsity cheerleaders traveled to Merced and Fremont to compete against other schools from California. They also had two bake sales during the intermission of the Tri-M games and sold Valentine candy from February 1 through February 14. This year's junior varsity cheerleaders were Jeanette Bounds, Cheryl Camany, Gloria Domalieg, Roberta Heess, and Debbie Michaels (head). Debbie Michaels commented on the year's activities. No one really knows just how challenging being a junior varsity cheerleader can be. I can truthfully say that I've enjoyed cheering this year.

Another Addition . . . Majorettes

This year there was another addition to the Alisal marching band . . . majorettes. Two hard-working girls marched with the band at parades, twirling their batons and showing off gigantic smiles! These girls practiced diligently at night rehearsals, learning new routines and keeping their batons in top shape. Advising the girls was Miss Alexander.

A Special Person . . . Mascot

There was a very special person at the many league basketball and football games, our mascot. Diane (Dinker) Harrison has been a fantastic mascot this year, cheering and showing her appreciation for the players of our teams.

Parades, Glamor, Competition . . . The flaggirls

Susie Valdez

Lyn Anderson

The Flaggirls always add glamour and zest to every band performance. This year the flaggirls performed at the Jamboree and many opening shows during the football season. They traveled with the band to many parades, earning first place in Soledad and Pacific Grove and third place in Merced. The flaggirls also found time to compete with other schools in central California.

They entered the Door Decorating Contest and did very well earning honorable mention.

Towards the end of the season, they performed at basketball half-times and marched in many spring parades.

Susie Valdez, head flaggirl, summed up the year's events by saying, "As flaggirls we're very proud to represent our school. This year has been exciting and active for all of us."

AGGRAVATION, frowns, Smiles . . . Bowling Club

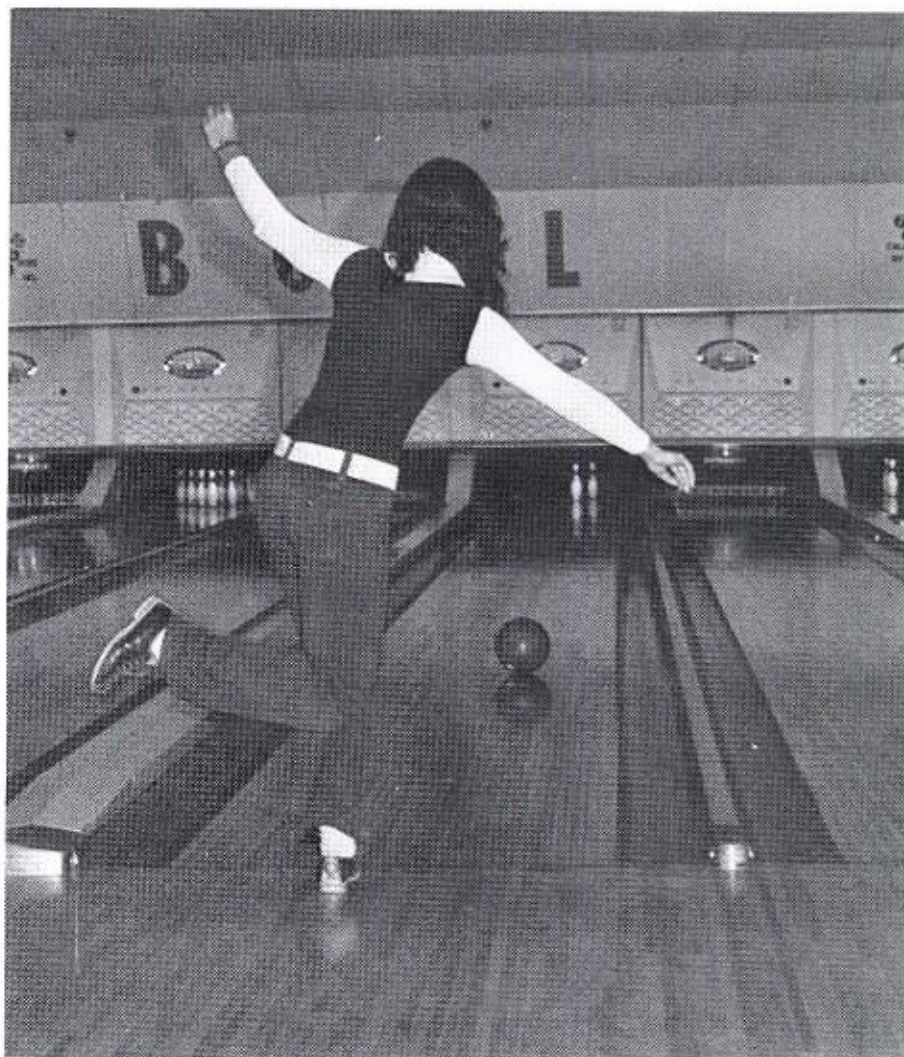

Believe it or not, the Bowling Club had changed. Over the span of three months, new faces appeared, and more people were eager to help. Mr. Walden, the advisor, sighed relief as he saw everyone settle down and bowl. Every week the Bowling Club met and exchanged friendly inter-squad competition. Improvement was the goal of all members. Some of the better bowlers were: Mike Stein, 178, Carey Brewer, 172, Don Kramer, 164, and Debbie Aledo, 160.

Having the honor of working with Debbie and holding the office of vice - president was Richard Robinson. Janice Haydon was their hard working secretary, and Brenda Olds, treasurer. Debbie commented on her club: "I thought the club was well organized. And if it wasn't for Mr. Walden this club would not have been formed."

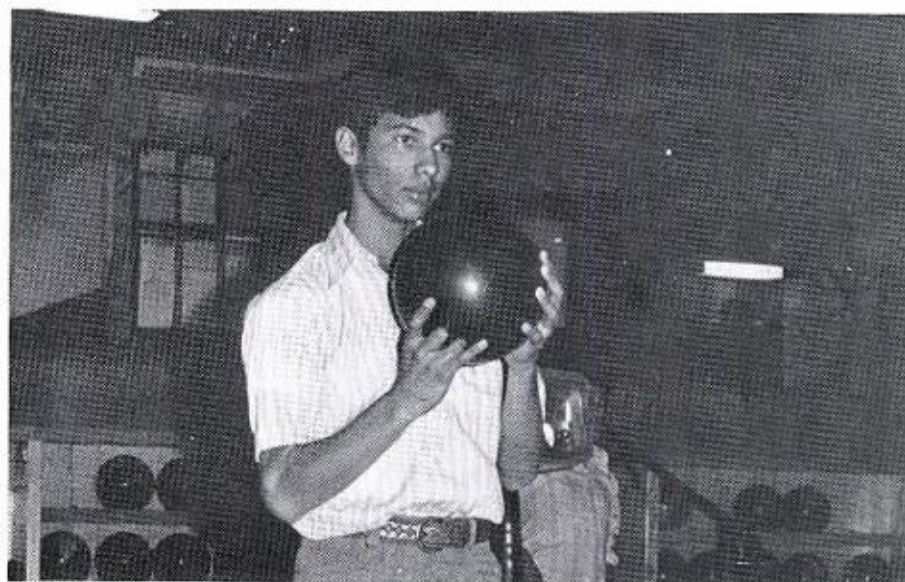

Debbie Aledo

Mrs. Bainter advises.

Winning second prize for their Christmas door began the year's activities for the French Club. Working together, they produced one of the outstanding activities this year, the Twirp Dance. With the assistance of their advisor, Mrs. Bainter, La Fleur de Lis proved to be one of the outstanding clubs this year.

The officers were co-presidents, David Kong and Lynn Anderson, secretary, Sylvia Chacon, and Grace Bandong, treasurer.

"We had a lot of fun this year working on activities like the Twirp Dance and Mardi Gras which were great successes. We also learned much about the French culture and especially enjoyed the French food."

David Kong

Sprechen sie Deutsch? . . . German Club

Excitement, energy, and fun, fun, and more fun were the answers we got when asked what this year's German Club was like. The German Club was one of Alisal's most energetic clubs. They started off the year actively by selling their tasty German Gummi Bears, placing third in the annual Christmas Door Decorating contest, and taking many interesting field trips to places like a Viennese Bakery where they enjoyed many bakery delights.

The club's hard-working advisor was Mrs. Smith, and the club's officers were president, Chris Jensen, vice president, Earl Bounds, secretary, Mamie Sum, and treasurer, Tom Yamashita.

We asked what Chris Jensen thought of the German Club. He replied: I think that the German Club is one of Alisal's most active clubs, with this year highlighted by fund - raising, field trips, and our annual year-end banquet. German Club is a fun and exciting club, and I would heartily recommend German to any student considering a foreign language.

Honor Students Promote Interest in Civic Affairs . . .

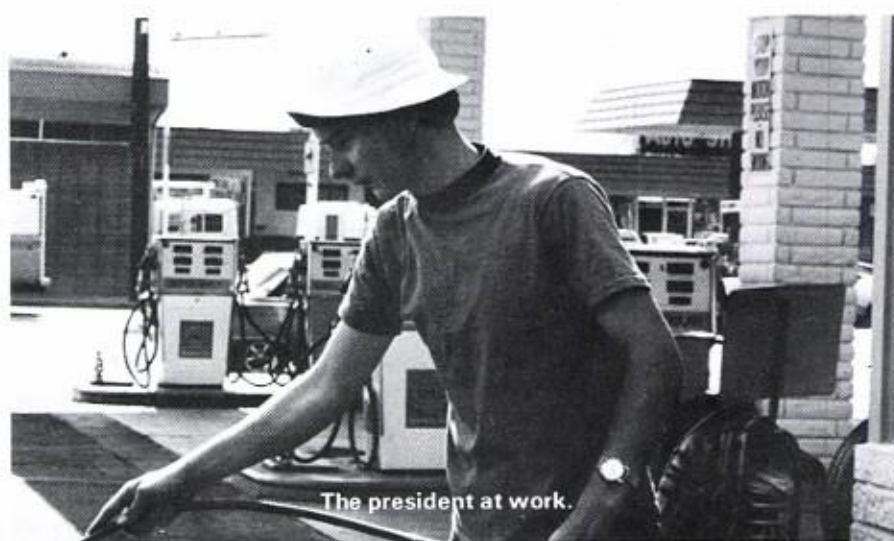

nhs

Promoting leadership and scholastic ability, the National Honor Society was advised by Mr. Baxter. This club consisted of scholastically inclined students who obtained their membership by invitation. Carwashes were held to build N.H.S.'s treasury.

The officers were Chris Jensen, president; Joe Aguirre, vice-president; Claudia Ward, secretary; and Sue Trimble, treasurer.

Asking Chris Jensen for a comment on the National Honor Society, he replied, "We promote interest in civic affairs to provide a means by which honor students may be recognized by the community."

Health Careers Explored . . . Health Careers Club

The Health Careers Club is made up of students interested in a medical career. The club started off the year by entering the Christmas door decorations contest.

The outstanding members of the club were Diana Martinez, president, Kathy Melville, vice-president, Julia Canat, secretary, and Sindy Ingram, treasurer.

"All of the members would like to thank Miss Brown for being such a terrific advisor. She has helped answer a lot of the questions we've had about medical careers."

Backing Up Our Wrestlers . . . Ilios Club

Wrestling fans of Alisal High composed the Ilios Club. With the help of the wrestlers, club members, and the score-keeping statisticians, wrestling has become an ever popular sport at Alisal High. Serving as president this year was Bill Dias and assisting him was Barbara Powell, secretary, Suzanne Anderson, treasurer, Debbie Douglas, and sergeant-at-arms, John Marsala.

Bake sales were given at the meets to raise money for the club. The club was ably advised by Mr. Rice and Mr. Espinoza.

Commenting on the club, president Bill Dias replied, "I think our club was one of the most involved and experienced clubs active this year."

Students Honored for Scholastic Achievement . . . CSF

The president speaks.

Members listen attentively.

The California Scholarship Federation is a state-wide organization. It is designed to honor students for their scholastic achievement in academic subjects as well as service to the school and the community. C.S.F. held carwashes and a bottle drive to earn money for their annual trip. The money also went to the scholarships which were awarded to the deserving members at the end of the year.

Outstanding members who held the club together were: president, Joe Aguirre, vice-president, Chris Jensen, secretary, Cleo Asuncion, and treasurer, Grace Fong. Advising the club was Mrs. Cobbley and Mrs. Bainter.

"Qualification for C.S.F. is a great distinction and I thoroughly encourage all who qualify to join."

Joe Aguirre

Dramatic Dedication . . .

International Thespians

Lights, curtain . . . action! The production of a new play was in progress as the actors promptly took their places. These students were members of the honorary International Thespians who had earned their titles by putting in 100 hours or more of any work connected with the theatrical arts. If not on stage, other members were behind the scenes busily engaged in creating the sets and programs for the performances. Directed and advised by Mrs. Smith, the Thespians produced many exciting productions this year.

"The Dramatic Arts have never and will probably never receive the wide recognition that it deserves. Our society is devoted to achieve that recognition. In drama there is much more than meets the eye and hopefully the vision of the students will improve."

Scott Lyman

"How can we go on like this?"

Thespians discuss a new play.

RADIOS, CIRCUITS, Model Airplanes . . . Electronics and Aviation

The Electronics and Aviation Club accomplished more for Alisal High than most of the students realize.

First, they did the fantastic job on the Christmas lights that brightened up the school during the holidays added a little spirit around Christmas time.

President of the club was Steve Countryman, vice - president, David Matt and secretary, Anthony Gerbic. Asking Steve to comment on his club, he said, "I think that the Electronics and Aviation Club will have a newer and more exciting future."

Steve Countryman

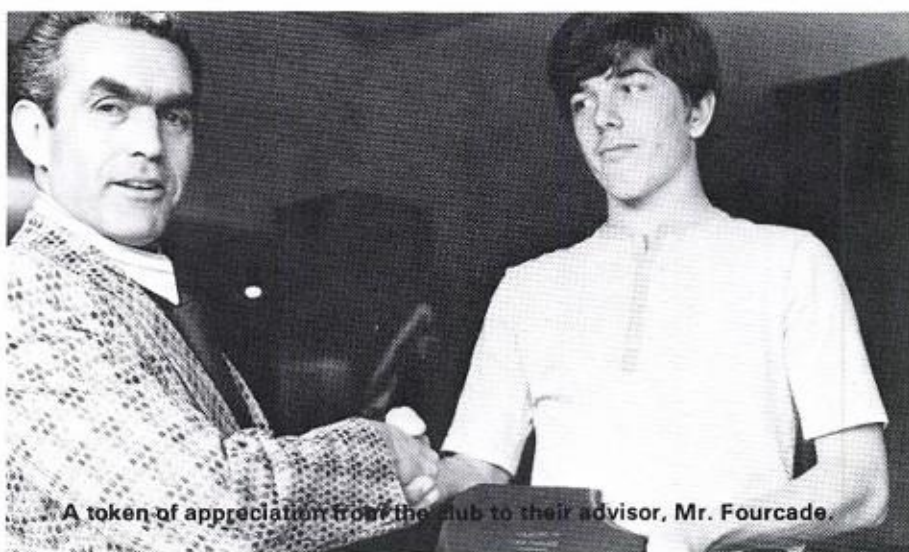

The Business World . . . LSEPF

LSEPF . . . laws, sales, economics, and personal finance is what this club is all about. With the help of Mr. Fourcade, the club gained insight to the business world by handling, counting, and keeping records of money. The club sponsored the ever popular pie-eating contest and ticket raffles for baseball and football games.

LSEPF president Lewis Brewer worked with his fellow members, Karen Scott, Linda Menezes, Tammy Prescott, Paula Howard, Doris Lepper, Melissa Burkeen, Deanna Benefield, and Terri Amaro to make the year as enjoyable as possible.

Commenting on the club, Lewis said, "The biggest activity of the year was the pie eating contest."

Lewis Brewer

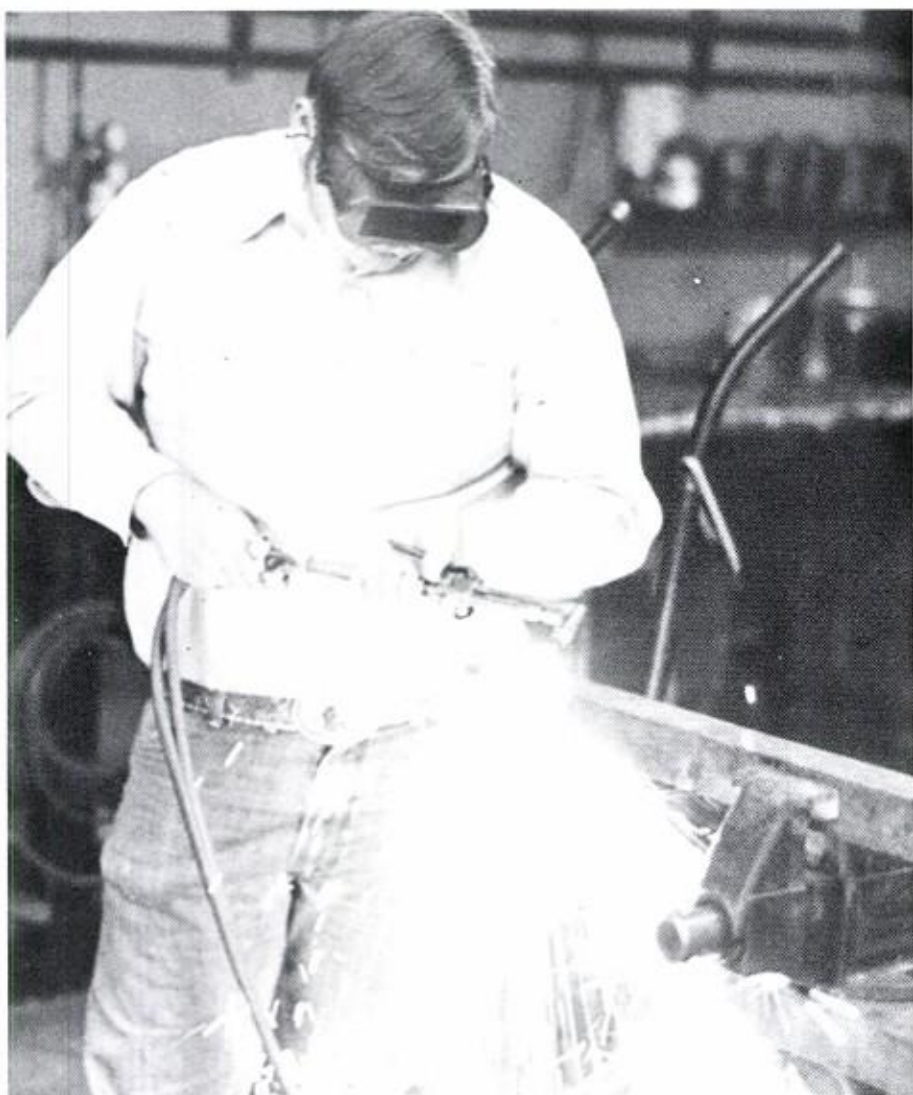

Metals, Welding, Scrap . . . Metals Club

Welding, you might say, is their speciality, and that is how the Metals Club managed to make all their money. They deserved it though because with the special advice of their advisor Mr. Larry Hale how could they miss? They built many things for the prom, such as a bridge. They did little odds and ends for the school, like designing and building a drag to smooth out the track and baseball diamonds. All the little things that add up to big things in the end. The leaders of this club were president Ed Rogers, Bruce Whitman, vice-president, Steve Sides, secretary, and John Marsala, sergeant-at-arms.

We asked president Ed Rogers to comment on this year's metals club. He replied:

"I think the club is great! The club will do really good next year, as their will be lots of new boys in shop."

Ed Rogers

Livestock, Land, Contests, RIBBONS . . . ffa

Competing in land judging this year were: Ed Rogers, Earl Escobar, David Brown, Rick Cokley, and Bill Snyder.

Future Farmers of America must have been the most active club on campus. Not only did they sponsor the King and Queen of Hearts' Dance which was a BIG success but they also held the Donkey Basketball game, went to the state convention, and attended twenty judging contests of land, livestock, and vegetables. "Youth with a Purpose" was the motto of F.F.A., which the club more than lived up to. This year's officers include president, Paul Richardson, vice-president William Smith, secretary, Kathy Martin, treasurer, Sharon Andrus, sentinel, Charla Rubis, and reporter, Rick Cokley. William Smith, vice-president, commented on the year's events. "Alisal F.F.A. gets a lot from the Student Body and hopes that you, the students, get much enjoyment in return."

Sports, Determination, Dedication . . . G.A.A.

The Girls' Athletic Association was one of the most popular and busiest clubs on campus this year. While keeping their cool and looking feminine, the girls who joined G.A.A. always worked hard either trying to compete in their sports or trying to raise money for their active club. There were all kinds of sports: gymnastics, volleyball, basketball, swimming, softball, track, tennis and even powderpuff football. The girls were led by: Glenda Woodrow, president, Sharon Andrus, vice-president, Velvie Richardson, secretary, Karen Briggs, treasurer, Terri Bozzo, fund raising, Katie Padilla, publicity, and Mamie Sum, Custodian of Records. With the help of Mrs. Camany the club withstood many of the problems and challenges clubs face.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Camany and Sharon Andrus the club accomplished a lot this year. Sharon Andrus commented on her club: "This year Block A enjoyed many fun activities, such as barbeques and parties. We had a carwash to raise money. Togetherness is the theme word for this year's M.A.Y.O. club. The M.A.Y.O. club really got it together this year by meeting every day during fifth and sixth period to discuss activities for the year, such as dances, carwashes, bake sales, and a year-end picnic. They also discussed and planned a dance for a Chicano scholarship which turned out to be a wonderful success.

Officers of the M.A.Y.O. club included president, Shirley Macias, vice president, Anna Herrera, secretary, Angie Marquez, treasurer, Becky Navoa, publicity manager, Judi Delatorre, and sergeant-at-arms, Baby Gonzales. Sponsors included Mr. Martinez and Mrs. Dolores Laysoya.

How can one describe the feeling of togetherness that the M.A.Y.O. club has? Shirley described it as: "The M.A.Y.O. club of Alisal has been very special to me and to my CARNALES in the club. They made every event we had a beautiful happening and feeling of togetherness among us Chicano students of Alisal High. To know that we can work together to strive for a better cultural background in this school is rewarding."

Pen and Paper in hand . . . Quill and Scroll

Ever wonder why YOU were never a member of the Quill and Scroll Club? Maybe it's because you didn't know the requirements. Quill and Scroll is a club consisting of honorary members who are sincerely interested in all aspects of journalism. Requirements include having 100 lines of copy published in the school paper, being a Junior or Senior, and being a paid member.

One of the most memorable events was the dessert party that Quill and Scroll held for the A.F.S. students. Everyone had a good time, especially when Mr. Puterbaugh, their advisor, started whipping up gourmet treats.

Members of the club included president, Connie Elliot, vice president, Kathy Pettigrew, secretary, Karen Bailey, treasurer, Jonetta Chenea, sergeant-at-arms Art Barrientos. Other members were Steve Bellone, Pat Hale, and Fay Bradshaw.

We asked president Connie Elliot to comment on this year's Quill and Scroll. She replied: "I loved every minute of it!"

Assisting the Coaches at the Track Meets . . . Track

Interest

Track Interest is perhaps, best summarized by its president, Cleo Asuncion, who said:

"The primary activity of the members of the Track Interest Club was assisting the coaches at the cross-country and track and field meets. The various jobs range from keeping score and recording times and distances, to raking the jump pits and providing refreshments for the team. Track Interest earned money by selling football programs, and at the end of the year the club and team members got together at a playday. The club is very active, and I encourage everyone to join because I feel that track is more enjoyable by being at the finish line when a runner breaks a record, and by helping and meeting the team members instead of just sitting in the stands."

On the JOB Training . . . future SECRETARIES of AMERICA

Throughout the year, the members of the Future Secretaries of America acquired knowledge of secretarial functions. These future secretaries learned useful practices such as filing and learning how to use the adding machine. Mrs. Kirchner, their advisor, was ever-present to help the members along in their endeavors to acquire office practice. President Candy Lineberry noted, "FSA has been a learning experience as well as a fun one for the members who participated in the activities. The members worked together and many gave much of their time to the group projects. It has been a good year for the Future Secretaries in which much was accomplished and many fun times were experienced." The officers this year were Candace Lineberry, president; Becky Husted, vice-president; Debbie Simon, recording secretary; Debbie Slevin, corresponding secretary; Susan Valdez, treasurer.

Debates, Competition, Tournaments . . . Speech & Debate

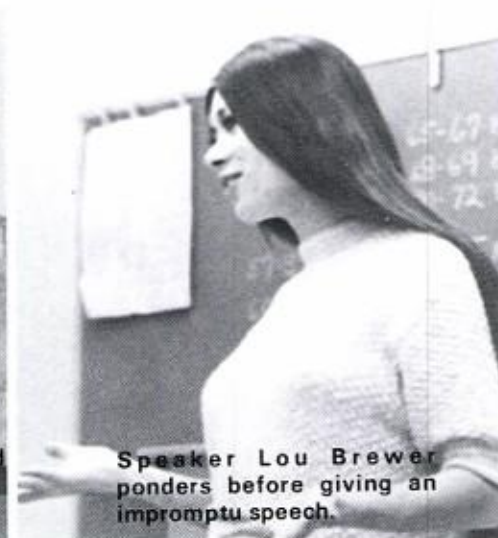

This year's Speech and Debate club dedicates its success to their president, Joseph Aguirre. Joe led the club through thick and thin and organized the rewarding tournament held at Alisal, and also set a perfect example by placing in many tournaments, where he placed first in most. Joseph had this to say about the Speech and Debate Club:

"Although the Speech and Debate Club as a unit has been relatively inactive, individual members have fared extremely well in speech competition—both interscholastic and civic club sponsored contests. The members did assist Mr. Logan in directing the Alisal High School Individual Events Tournament and conducted a subversive program aimed at recruiting new members."

Surveying the Jensen Ranch and selling food in the concession stands at the J.V. football games were some of the outside activities the members of the Checkers' Club accomplished. Each member maintaining a "B" or better average was selected from his drafting course to join the honorary club. This year's officers were Art Barrientos, president, George Acaya, vice-president, David Moseley, secretary, and Tsugu Kuramura, treasurer. The Checkers' Club was ably led by their advisor, Mr. Price. Art Barrientos replied: "The events sponsored by Checkers' aided us in financing the activities that made our club one of the most exciting and interesting at Alisal."

"I Believe In Music" . . . Vocal Groups

This year Alisal's vocal department consisted of four musically inclined units: Girls' Glee, Girls' Choir, A Cappella, and Vocal Ensemble. Each group strived for perfect blending, good tone quality, improved sight reading, and advanced music fundamentals. Girls' Glee and Girls' Choir's main goal was to prepare for A Cappella, while A Cappella reached for Vocal Ensemble, and Vocal Ensemble . . . well, they just kept up their smooth tone quality and perfected their singing!

After these groups practiced and practiced up to their music instructor's satisfaction, they showed off their musical talents by performing at many concerts, where they received rewarding and meaningful criticisms. Let's give a hand to the future singers of America!

On the Street and On Tour . . . a.h.s. Band

Musically spirited and talented was the Alisal High Band. The band was jam-packed with creative, talented and eager students just bursting to show off what they could do. In the fall, they performed and placed in many exciting and competitive parades and entertained the student body with their well organized halftime shows. During second semester, the band changed the scene and entered the symphonic season, becoming regular Mozarts, Bachs, and Mancinis'. During the symphonic season, the band took a tour to Marysville and Nevada City to show off their musical abilities. Afterwards, the band rewarded themselves by taking a trip to the snow, where those who knew how skied, and others had just good clean fun organizing snowball fights and building snowmen.

Want to know the secret of the band's continued success? It's Mr. Horsley, their devoted director. Skilled and talented in the music profession, he gave all he could to the musicians of this organization. Other loyal officers were president, Pat Hale, vice president, Kayce Cover, secretary, Denise Smith, and Treasurer, Suzanne Anderson.

We asked president Pat Hale to comment on this year's band. He replied: I think the band had a really great year. The band started the year with an all-time low enrollment, but they didn't let that stop them. The highlight of the year was the tour of Northern California. The group planned it and then did a fantastic job at all their concerts. This is not to say that the band didn't have its problems—it did, but the guys and gals always seemed to come through. I think that is the sign of a truly great band. After the performance of this year's band, I think we can say that we are still Number One!

Cropping, Copy, Check lists, Frustrations . . . 1973 Trojan

Working on a yearbook is a unique experience. Very few organizations work under the same atmosphere with such productive results. Tremendous pressures, continual misunderstandings, and constructive criticisms are present at each level of staff production. But as the staff packed Mr. Kearney's office to view the newly arrived books, a certain sense of pride and accomplishment filled the air, and the staff suddenly became as one, forgetting their many arguments and disappointments. The books had arrived, and it was theirs. These staff members were as varied as raindrops in the sky. Yet if one looked at each long enough one could see a certain quality each must have, a determination to produce the best yearbook Alisal's ever had.

Bernadette Agpaoa, a lively class member, was a willing worker when one was needed. Janet Amnette and Joe Blohm lent a hand on the senior section. Joe also helped with sports and in securing patrons for the book. If there was anything to be done that required experience or simply a willingness to help. Fay Bradshaw was the person to see. A never ceasing fountain of energy, Fay often worked till the early hours of the morning to see that a deadline was met. Paula Carrier and Carolyn McCart aided in advertising. Sylvia Chacon, Maria Cuellar, Chris Morales, and Ebby Martinez combined efforts to produce some of the best copy the yearbook has ever printed. A photographer needs to be much more than just a picture taker, he must have imagination and a sense of timing. Tom Valdriz was one of the most competent photographers around. Photography helpers who assumed major roles were Charles Crain and Manuel Nerez. Along with producing outstanding copy, Mamie Sum and Cindy Forgone labored successfully over the girls' sports' section. To become an editor of a section is to have great responsibility placed upon one's shoulders. Two people who handled their editor-ships quite well were Debbie Sims, classes, and Janice Haydon, organizations. David Jorgenson was boys' sports' editor with Mike Pura taking over during the latter part of the year. Lending their talents to organizations were Brenda Olds, Jessie Pabros, and Diana Wilkinson. Gilbert Perez and Gabriel Payon assisted the sports' editors. Jimmy Mazzuca co-edited the faculty section with Claudia Ward. Brady Ryburn worked on the senior section. Finishing four years service on the staff was one of yearbook's most capable members, GeorgeAnn Wence, of advertising section fame. Always eager to help each new and old members GeorgeAnn was a constant strength to both the staff and its advisor and editor.

Two people directed the course of the yearbook, molding and forming it into what the finished product would be. As mere humans, they make mistakes. The difference being that their mistakes would be preserved for posterity.

A veteran of four years, Mr. Angelo became more than just an advisor. Rita Morales' second year as editor proved to be even more of a challenge for her. Rita, however, met the challenge in producing the 1973 yearbook.

These were the members of the staff who were thinking different thoughts as they crowded into Mr. Kearney's office, and in most, a pride swelled in their hearts as the books were viewed for the first time. At the same time a sense of finality and sorrow filled the room, for never again would the same people work together for so long and hard toward the same goal.

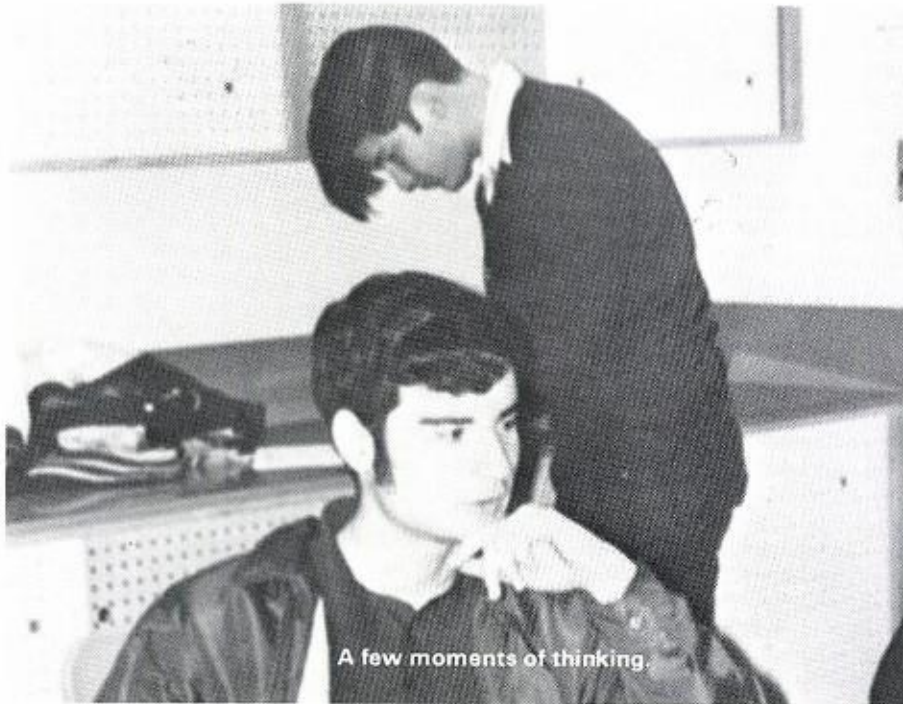

Interesting, Up-to-Date . . . Trojan Tribune

The Trojan Tribune staff finished another successful year in producing an outstanding monthly newspaper. With the guidance of Mr. Puterbaugh, their journalism advisor, the staff produced various interesting and fresh ideas in many of their columns. The Tribune brought us up-to-date on many of the sports, up-coming activities, and recent news around the school. This staff should be commended on a job well done. This year's editor was Connie Elliot, assistant editor, Kathy Pettigrew, feature editor, Karen Bailey, sports editors, Steve Bellone and Art Barrientos, business manager, Lucy Stone, ads manager, Karen Bailey, distribution manager, Art Barrientos, photographers, Pat Amaro and Kathy Pettigrew.

Mr. Puterbaugh looks on.

Chicago, B., S., & T., Santana . . . Pep Band

Chicago, Blood, Sweat and Tears, and Santana were the types of songs you could hear at any football and basketball game from our fantastic Pep Band. Led by band president Pat Hale, the Pep Band played during half-times to raise the spirits of the Alisal students. When Pep Band leader Pat Hale was asked about this year's Pep Band, he replied: I think the guys and gals did a fantastic job. We practiced for a half hour before a performance, and they still came through with "flying colors." I don't think I could have asked for more out of them. We had our rough spots, but, by and large, I think we did a good job. The members didn't get discouraged when something went wrong. I would like to thank all the members for a job well done.

Pat Hale

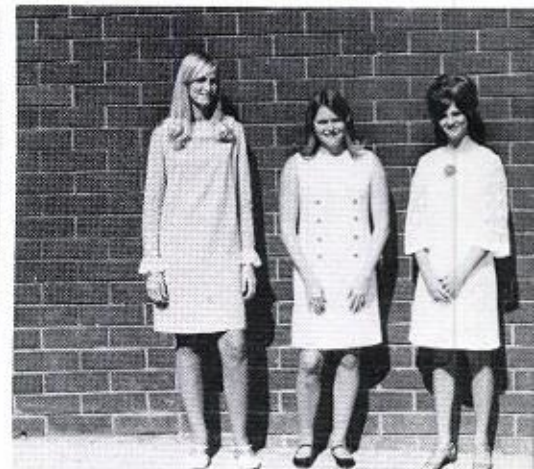

Impressing Smiles . . . Banner Girls

Practice, practice, and more practice was the theme for the Banner Girls of Alisal High. They had night practice, practiced 5th period, and practiced with the band. They represented the band in parades always giving the crowd the first impression of the fantastic Alisal Trojan Marching Band.

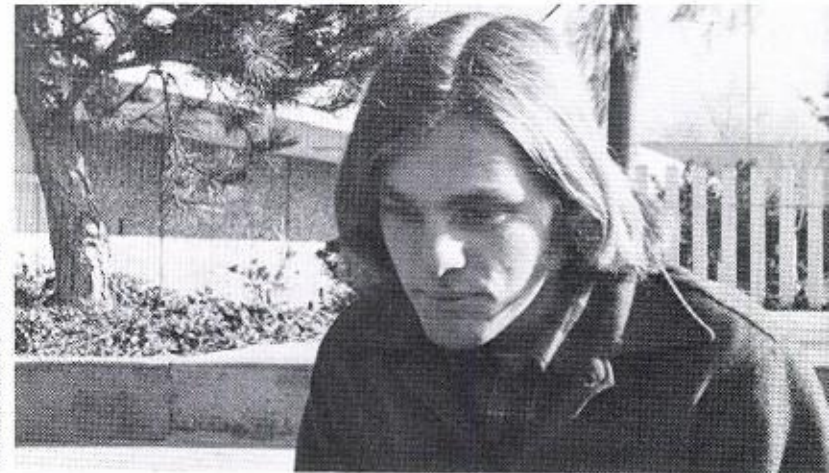

From memories of . . . fishnet stockings, "tuff", Julie Christie, Byrds, "lees", "The Sound of Music" Paul Revere and the Raiders, "I Spy", Paul Newman, the lovin' Spoonful, "Ben Franklin" glasses, "Groovy", The Burtons, Bobby socks, "Boss Boss neat kean," polo shirts, "Man of la Mancha", 'a Go-Go', Butch haircuts, The Beatles, string ties, motorcycles, Batman, corded caps, "A Taste of honey . . . and the like . . . there emerged . . .

The World of Creativity . . . art Department

Working with leather, ceramics, jewelry needle crafts, and sculpturing were many of the creative crafts of the art department which the beginning art students learned this year. The more experienced students increased their ability in the crafts. The arts and crafts were taught by Mrs. Roessler and the skilled workmanship of teaching the fine arts taught by Mr. Lee covered such things as painting and drawing. Though there was no Renaissance Faire this year, the students' work resulted in many fine objects. The department's continued interest in local art contests and generous contributions, such as Christmas hospital decorations, added to its prestige and community involvement. Working together or alone their work was highly impressive.

Skill, Patience, Practice . . . Drama

Stage crew take time to watch rehearsal.

Drama involves just about everything.

This year the Drama Department learned about the skills and patience of acting. Three one act plays were presented with a touch of variety. The first and second plays were dramatic, chilling, and full of expression. The third play was a comedy about human communication. Outstanding senior actors were Brady Ryburn, Scott Rogers, and Cheryl Madox.

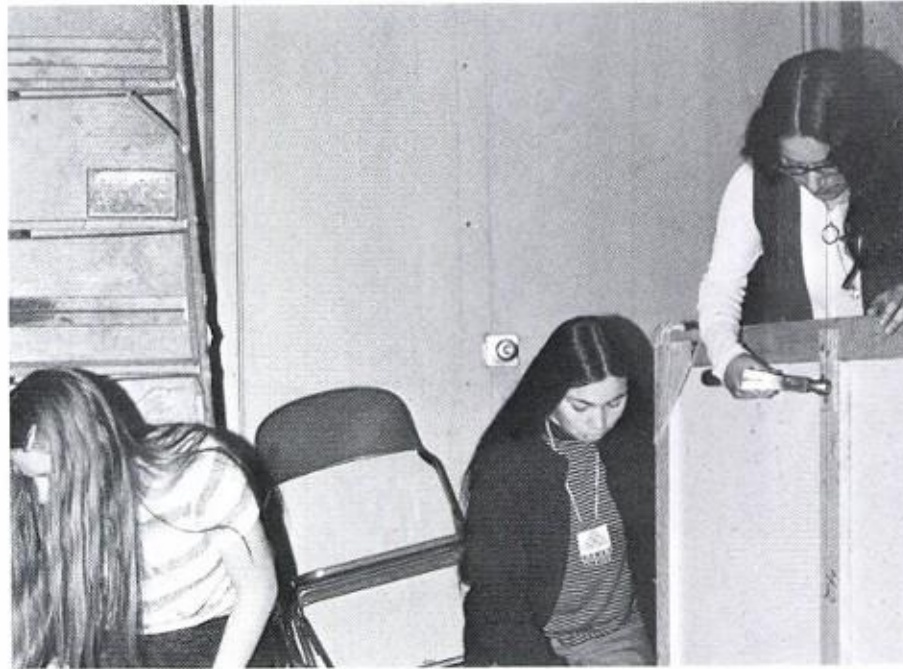

Many thanks are owed to Mrs. Smith for her many hours and hard work of teaching and producing such successful productions this year.

Once again the band was on the move. One of their fund raising activities was a very successful pancake breakfast which helped them travel on a tour to Northern California. They traveled to Merced for the big band review. Competition was against sixty-four bands in which our band placed third. It was practice, practice, practice which resulted in very successful half-time shows at football games and in such successful parades.

The band also presented the best Band Concert ever, led by director Mr. Gary Horsley.

Vocal students listen to instructions.

This year the vocal classes were minus two important things. One was the Boys' Glee. But the most important was Mrs. Di Girolamo. Replacing Mrs. Di was Mrs. Lins. The vocal classes began the year with a Christmas concert directed by Mrs. Di. Various performances were given by the Vocal Ensemble such as a tour to Marysville and Nevada City with the concert band on March 8, 9, and 10. Also a quartet sang at the wedding of Kathy Pettigrew and Bob Palma. The Spring Concert, directed by Mrs. Lins, was, of course, a success. The choral festival, which was a combination of all the Salinas High schools Cappella Choirs and Vocal Ensembles, was held for the public on April tenth. The vocalists concluded the year knowing they had entertained in an enhancing manner.

Singing is not merely interpreting notes, but understanding the meaning behind the words.

Work is enjoyable here.

'Reflections' . . . a Trilogy of One Acts

The Drama department's first production of the year was a trilogy of one act plays. Skillfully directed by Mrs. Donna Smith, the three one acts met with substantial success each of the four nights of performance. The first presentation was "To Burn a Witch" by Richard Bray. This particular play centers on two young girls accused of being witches and sentenced to burn at the stake. "The Lottery" was derived from the story by Shirley Jackson and takes place in a small farming town where everyone depends on crops to survive. Once each year a human sacrifice is made to insure a good yield. "The Lottery" is the story of one such sacrifice. Rounding out the trilogy was "The Bald Soprano", a comedy written by Eugene Ionesco. One interpretation of the play seemed to be that it was a humorous comment on society. But whatever conclusion the audiences preferred to draw from the plays, each would agree that this winter's presentation was highly entertaining. Villagers appearing in "The Lottery" were: Diane Harrison, Deven Smith, Vickie Boswell, Michelle Puckett, Lynette Thomas, Barbara Palmer, Marsha Maples, Craig Scherer, Poul Nielsen, Debbie and Kathy Smith, Doreen Baird, Pansy Kemper, Ronnie Stillwell, Debbie Headley, Gene Russo, Debbie Sartwell, Gene Pugnier, and Ruth Villareal.

PRACTICE, PRACTICE, PRACTICE . . . 1973 Band On Tour

The time drew near. The size of the room diminished next to the swell of the crowd. As each band member found his music, instrument, and proper place, the disconcerting noise slowly decreased. The announcer stepped up and as he finished the introduction, the Symphonic Band of Alisal High burst into the fast-paced strains of "Gallop." Thus went each successful performance of the concert band on its mini-tour. The day was spent in performances at the Castroville Center and El Sausal Junior High. The band's performance started out a day of hard work and ended with a tired but satisfied group of young musicians.

Contest

Step right up folks! . . . the annual pie-eating contest was being held at Alisal by the LSEPF club for the eighth year in a row. Crowds of spectators rushed in the boys' gym to see this guaranteed hilarious event. Sounds of laughter came from the audience as they watched contestants busily digging their faces in luscious creamy pies. The one who "ate the whole thing" first was the winner of the contest and received an enormous frozen turkey. Turkeys were also given to the rest of the contestants.

I live in the northern part of Denmark, called Vendsyssel, in a small village, Vistrup, with 400 inhabitants. Vistrup is situated 4 miles from the west coast of Denmark and also four miles from a larger city, Hjørring. My father, Aage, has a farm, which is very small (25-30 acres) compared to farms in California, but big enough to make a living. My mother, Ingrid, is a housewife. My sister, Agnete, is 29 years old and works in the firm F. L. Smidt in Copenhagen. In 1971 she was married to Lars Brink, who is studying Danish at the University of Copenhagen, and they now live in one of the suburbs of Copenhagen, Virum. My brother, Gunnar, is 24 years old and is studying librarianship in Copenhagen. He lives in another suburb, Værløse, in Denmark. I'm attending a three year grammar school called "gymnasium" (it has nothing to do with an American gymnasium). I finished my first year before I came to the USA, and I will continue my second and third year when I return. It's quite similar to Alisal High School except for the size (the "gymnasium" has about 600 pupils) and the ability to choose your own subjects. I'm enjoying my stay here in Salinas very much. I enjoy living with my host family in Prunedale and attending Alisal High School. It's a tremendous experience for me to go to this school, to get to know all the different people around the campus, and also to take whatever subjects I like.

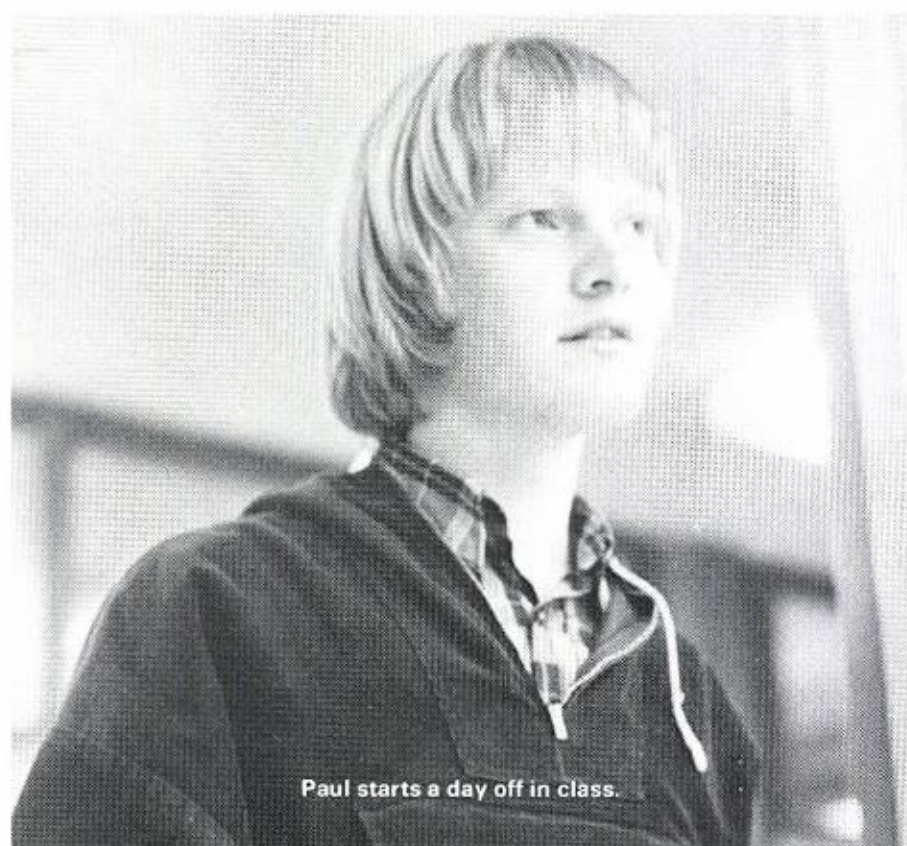

Jeg bor i den nordlige del af Danmark, kaldet Vendsyssel, i en lille landsby, Vistrup ligger ca. 6 km fra Vestkysten og ogsaa ca. 6 km fra provinsbyen Hjørring. Min far, Aage, har en gaard, som er meget lille (ca. 21 tønder land) sammenlignet med farms i Californien, men stor nok til at tjene til livets ophold. Min mor, Ingrid, er hjemmegaaende husmor. Min søster, Agnete, er 29 aar og arbejder i firmaet F. L. Smidt i København. Hun blev i 1971 gift med Lars Brink, som studerer dansk paa Københavns Universitet, og de bor nu i en af Københavns forstæder, Virum. Min broder, Gunnar, er 25 aar og læser til bibliotekar i København. Han bor i en anden forstad, Værløse. I Danmark gaar jeg i en 3-aarig skole, kaldet gymnasium (det har ingenting at gøre med et amerikansk "gymnasium"). Jeg afsluttede 1.g, inden jeg rejste til USA, og jeg vil fortsætte i 2. og 3.g, naar jeg kommer tilbage. Det ligner Alisal High School en hel del med undtagelse af størrelsen (gymnasiet har omkring 600 elever) og muligheden for at vælge sine fag selv. Jeg nyder mit ophold her i Salinas Særligst meget. Jeg er meget glad for at bo hos min vaertsfamilie i Prunedale og for at gaa paa Alisal High School. Det er en veldig oplevelse for mig at gaa paa denne skole, at komme til at kende de forskellige mennesker paa den og være i stand til at tage fag, jeg bryder mig om.

Alisal Makes Its Own Kind

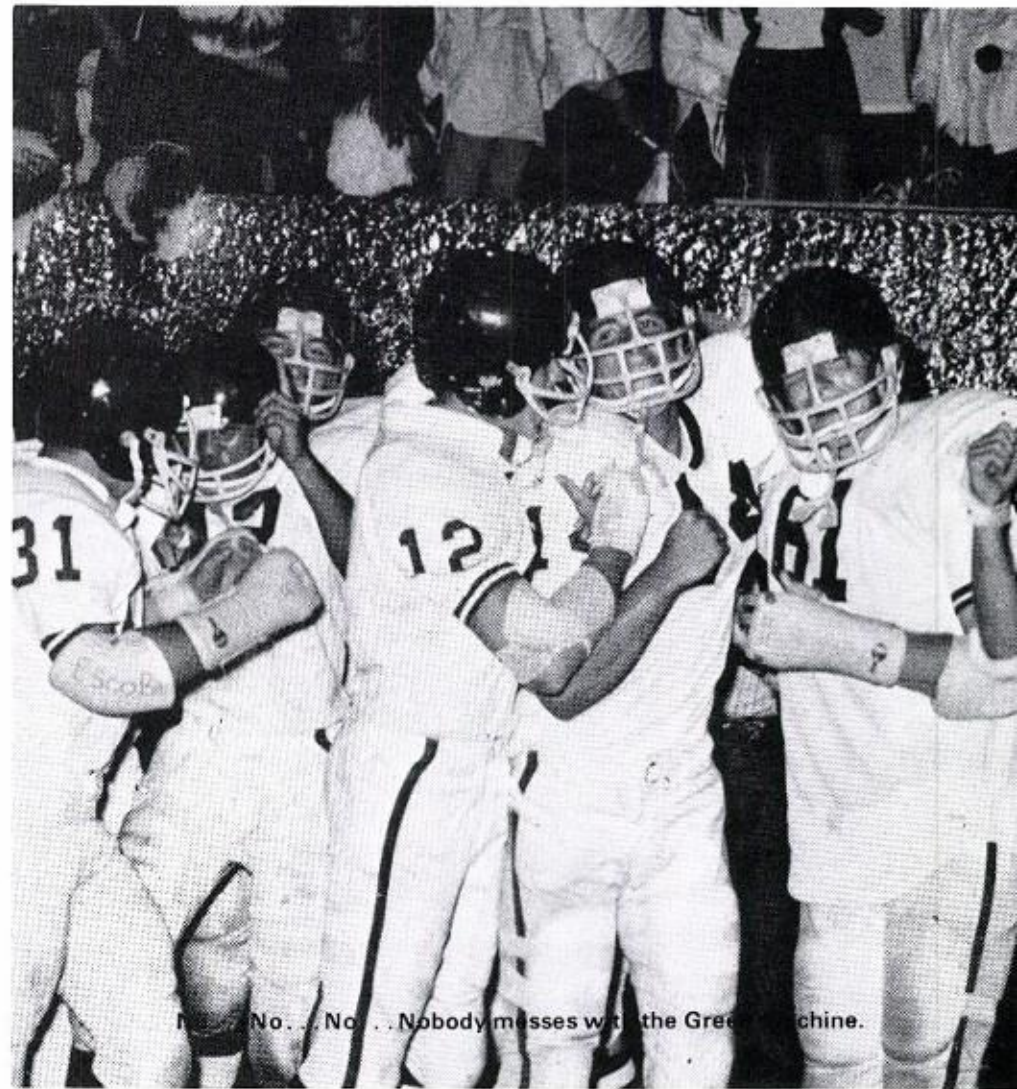

On September seventh, spirited Alisalians participated wildly in our annual Jamboree at the Salinas High Stadium. The excitement of winning the rooters' trophy for the seventh consecutive year was a fantastic sight of screaming and hysterically happy people.

Varsity captains, Leon Scott and Bill Dew, proudly received the coveted victor's trophy again for the third time before Alisal's cheering crowds.

The first masterpiece, "Alisal Says Hello," was rolled out at the beginning, followed by a giant record, "We've Only Just Begun" and a final roll-out, "I Gotcha!" Tired but happy, the Trojans left the stadium with a memory of another Jamboree victory.

- Bach

On Tuesday, December 12, 1972, Alisal was honored by the presence of a prominent author, Mr. Richard Bach. While on location in Monterey for the filming of his best selling novel, "Jonathan Livingston Seagull", Mr. Bach graciously consented to visit Alisal for what turned out to be two hours of insight into the mind of one of America's currently popular authors.

Mr. Bach described the young life of a writer as a constant struggle with just about everything. Describing life as a swiftly moving stream, and students as tiny creatures clinging to the rocks along the way. The only way to hit mid-stream is to jump right in.

Mr. Bach signs a book for a student.

Wrestling Strengths and Skill Demonstrated at Region IV Finals

Wrestling is packed with fast paced action.

Things were "movin'" on all three mats.

Spectators watch attentively.

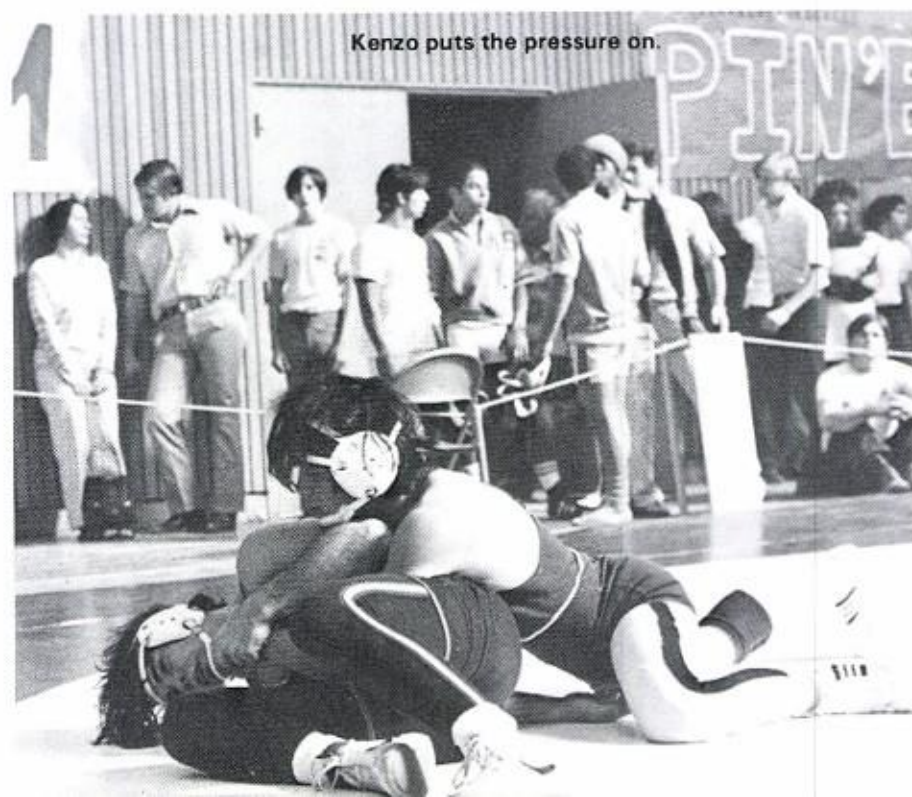

Putting all their strength and skills together earned seven Alisal wrestlers a first place in Region IV. On February 17, a crowd gathered in the Trojan gym to watch some of the best wrestlers from the Monterey Bay League, South Peninsula League, and Mission Trails' League. Competing with 26 schools, Alisal came through with 62 points, Gunn High with 58, and North High, 57. Working throughout the day scoring and timing were our hard working statisticians, cheerleaders, songleaders, and Ilios Members. Coaches Terry Espinosa, and Don Rice have proved throughout the year that they are the top coaches around.

Yuletide Spirit Evident at Alisal High School

Yuletide greenery is radiant throughout Alisal.

It's Santa mouse!!

The season to be jolly was upon us and at Alisal it was obvious. "Season's Greetings" in green lights greeted each person as he passed through the main doors. Holiday music floated over the school lawn. Mistletoe and candy canes were on display at every corner. At night a Christmas Concert was given by the Vocal Music Department. Creative artists displayed their Christmas spirit in the form of art objects in the library. Even Santa made an appearance visiting every good underclassman and a few exceptional upperclassmen too. It was a very merry Christmas at Alisal.

DEBBIE SARTWELL PROVES WORTHY

This year Alisal's basketball queen was chosen in quite a different way. Nine young ladies were chosen by the varsity basketball team. They were: Linda Allison, Agnes Cosio, Nita Forgnone, Helen Morales, Rita Morales, Sammara Moyers, Becky Norris, Velvie Richardson, and Debbie Sartwell. Out of these nine, the student body voted for five finalists. They were: Anges Cosio, Nita Forgnone, Becky Norris, Velvie Richardson, and Debbie Sartwell. On February 6 when the Trojans met the Salinas High Cowboys Debbie Sartwell was crowned Alisal High's 1973 basketball queen at a well prepared and beautiful half-time ceremony. Debbie was presented with the Queen's crown, a silver tray, a basketball necklace, and red roses.

Another Big Success . . . ffa King and Queen of Hearts Dance

Adding to the Valentine spirit, the Future Farmers of America presented the traditional King and Queen of Hearts Dance. On the night of February 3, 1973 in the Trojan gym, the spirit of Valentines day lingered throughout the entire evening. Various organizations ran in the race of selling tickets. Janice Haydon and George Robles were sponsored by the sophomore class. They were crowned King and Queen of Hearts. Taking a second place was Jack Castenda and Ann Herrera sponsored by the Mayo Club. Third place was captured by Sylvia Chacon and Joao Aidar sponsored by AFS. Many deserving thanks goes to the Future Farmers of America for sponsoring the very enjoyable King and Queen of Hearts Dance each year.

The Memories of a Great Senior Year

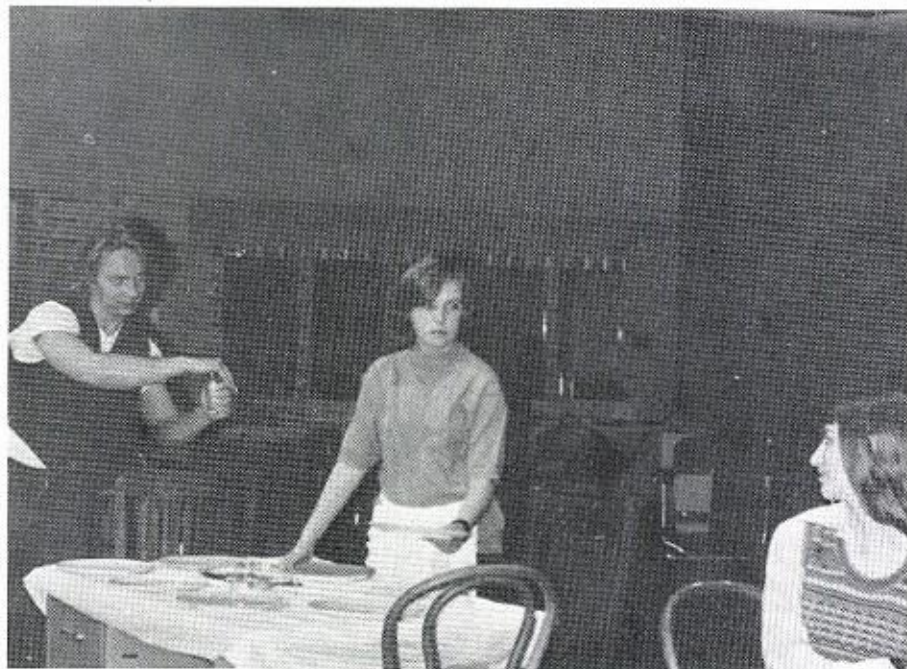

Thespians prove . . . "You Can't Take It With You"

Some comedies are seen one day and forgotten the next, but not so with the Alisal production of Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman's "You Can't Take It With You." The play was an enormous success that brought forth gales of laughter and sunshiny smiles from the young and old in the audience. Much of this success was due to the combined efforts of a superior cast and the splendid direction of Mrs. Smith.

All in all, one can say that from the first chuckle to the last guffaw, "You Can't Take It With You" has proven that you can take a comedy with you.

Green Machine Proves a Threat in MBL

A new record was established at this year's 1972 Jamboree team by none other than the fantastic Alisal Varsity football squad. The Trojan Green Machine for the first time in the history of the Jamboree won for the third consecutive time the Jamboree Football trophy. In the first game of the night the Alisal "gang" creamed the Vikings by beating them 12 to 1. It was a much different story when the Trojans met Salinas High. The Cowboys broke the "Green Machine" by a 2 to 1 victory over the Trojans. North Salinas proved to be a bit tougher as they edged out the Trojans 4 to 2 in their rematch of the night. In the final game of the night, Alisal didn't seem to be bothered by their earlier defeat to the Salinas High Cowboys as they sprang back to beat them 5 to 2 to clench the title. Two words that described the teams' feelings that night were "Far-Out!" For the regular season, Alisal was ranked number two in the division in total defense and team defense and achieved the number two team in the Southern Division of the M.B.L. But, as the saying goes, "When you're number two you try harder!" The Trojans had 989 yards on the ground, led by Leon Scott's 440, 269 by Davey Dew, and 258 by Mark Domingo (The Terrible Trio). Danny Ross accounted for all of the Alisal passing yardage and led the division in all passing categories, except completion percentage. He completed 44 of 92 attempts for 694 yards with four touchdowns and six interceptions. Ross's passes usually wound up in the hands of Alex Pardo. Rick Lazzerini was second in the division with 17 receptions while Pardo was third with three. Well, what are the words that can describe a team like the one we had this year at Alisal? Far-Out!

Alisal Junior Varsity Wins First City Championship

Although the J.V. record shows only two wins, the young Junior Varsity played well all year, hampered by mistakes and bad breaks which cost us many games. Offensively they were led by Gary Rowe, Keith Smith, Alan Douglas, Jim Romig, and Lineman, Larry Thomas, David Schmidt, Cliff Sawyer, Jason Muir, Dale Webber, Jeff McCullough and Jesus Rico. Defensively they were led by Robert Anthony, Jeff Sigala, Roy Cervantes, Abe Longoris, Larry Sandoval, Ernie Comacho, Robert Ceralde, John Smith, Victor Andrado, Tiburcio Gomez, and Gilbert Ruiz. The captains for the year were Gary Rowe, Robert Anthony and Robert Ceralde. This fine team play and the excellent coaching of Mr. Mortensen, Mr. Russo, and Mr. Romero gave the Alisal J.V.'s its first City Championship.

Frosh-Soph Team Gains Valuable Experience

The 1972 Frosh-Soph football team had a "fundamental" football season this year. Out of 7 games played they won only 2, which were against San Lorenzo and Aptos. But instead of gaining prestige this year with a winning team they gained experience. With this year of hard luck behind them they look forward to a winning season next year. Coaches Deaver, Favero and Rice should all be commended for the excellent coaching effort they gave. Members of this young team which should be noted for outstanding playing this year are Steve Dixon, Wayne Knight, David Carillo, Ted Wilson, Tracy Tanawan, Mario Rojas, David Puns, Jimmy Jemenez, Randy Disher and Elias Revera. Leading the team as captains were Steve Dixon and Wayne Knight.

Cross Country Does It Again, Eight Straight Years!

Our Varsity Cross Country team continued its Salinas City Championship dynasty for the eighth straight year. The Frosh-Soph finished a productive year by placing first in the Alisal Invitational and second in the MBL. All three teams were the South Section Champions of the MBL.

Coach Allen acclaimed Chris Jensen as his outstanding varsity runner. Chris was team captain with Roy Rede as junior varsity captain and Artie Garcia was frosh-soph captain. Along with Chris, Roy and Artie, Coach Allen further praised David Groves, Ruben Aguilar, and Bruce Victorine as his outstanding runners.

Varsity Hoopsters Breeze Thru Alisal Tournament

The final score shows Alisal on top!

Coach Cork Haddan's varsity basketball syndicate again dominated the local pre-league basketball season. One of the greater accomplishments was capturing the 4th Annual Alisal Invitational Basketball Tournament.

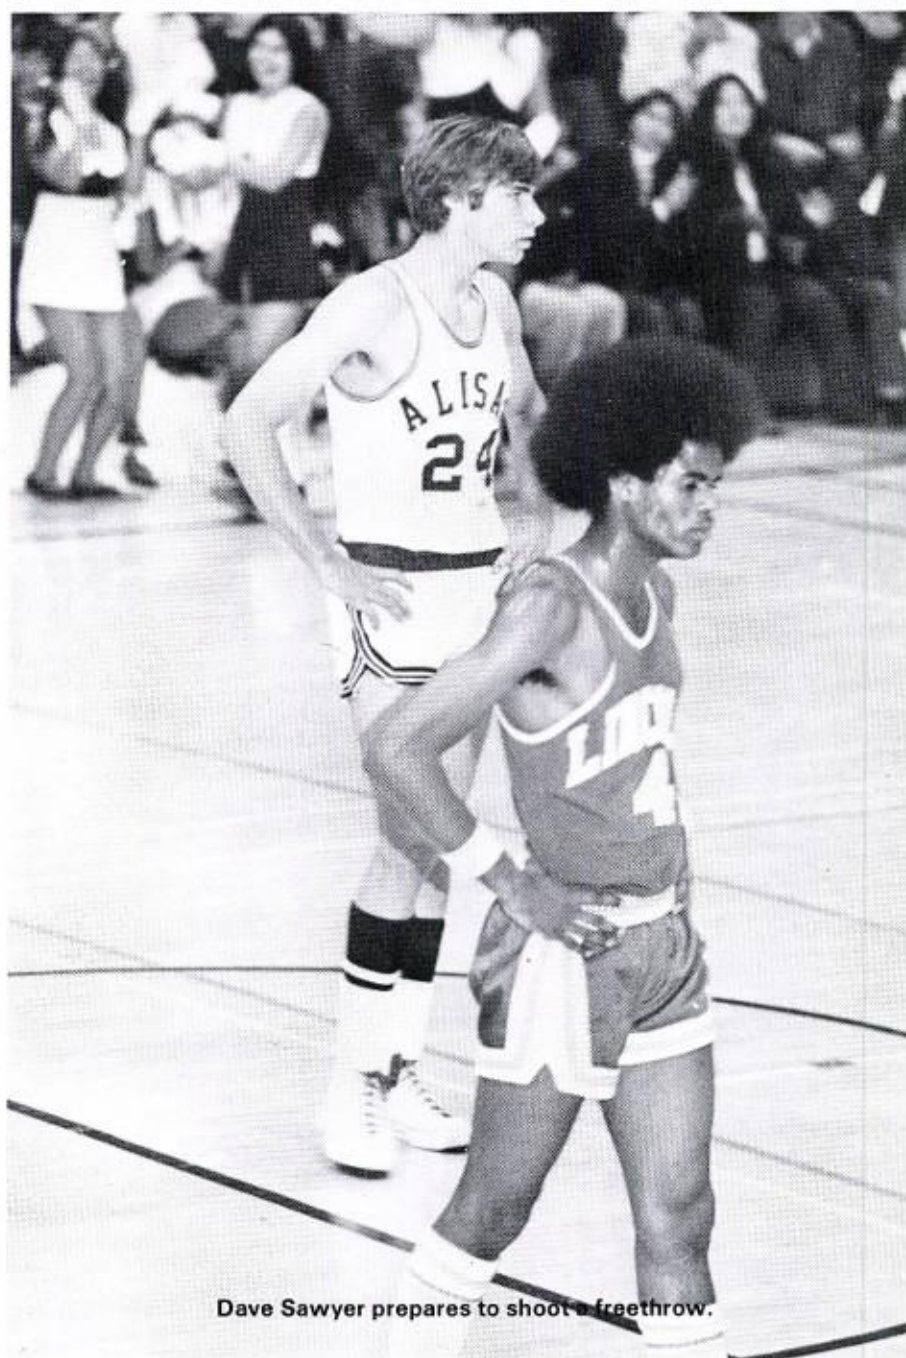

Alisal blasted its opponents out of the gym on all three nights of the highly acclaimed event. Schools bowing to the Trojans were Yerba Buena, 102-43, Hollister, 83-47, and Lincoln, 82-50.

The win marks the second straight Alisal Tourney championship and the third time in the four year history of the event for Alisal. Alisal destroyed challenging Yerba Buena, 102-43, in the opening night as all of the starting quintet broke into the scoring column.

Ronald Ritchie broke through for Alisal as he led the Trojan efforts with 25 points. Mike Pearce followed with 16; while Steve Sides had 15. In the semi-finals against the Hollister Balers, the men of Troy bolted away in the first half and went on to record a lopsided 83-55 victory. After only scoring five points during the first night, Sawyer surprised everyone as he led his team in scoring with 21 points. Sides was next (16) along with teammates Art Barrientos (11) and Ritchie (10).

In the long-awaited finals, Alisal found Lincoln High a little less cooperative than its preceding opponents. But, as the final seconds ran off the clock, Alisal again had successfully laid claim to its tourney championship running past Lincoln, 82-47.

After his fine floor game and totaling 50 points, Sides was the unanimous choice as Most Valuable Player. Also selected to the All Tourney team were Sawyer and Ritchie. Sawyer had totaled 49 points; while Ritchie had 45.

Varsity Cagers Capture

During the '72-73 basketball season, coach Cork Hadden's cagers carried on with an Alisal tradition, winning basketball. For the fourth year in a row, Alisal captured the league championship. The only difference this year was it was the southern division instead of the entire league. Alisal lost its bid during the Shagnassy playoffs, losing to the northern division champs, Aptos.

Alisal started off its season by capturing the Alisal Invitational Basketball Tournament for the third time in the last four years. Alisal breezed past Abraham Lincoln, 82-55, in the final round to win the tourney. Alisal opened defense of its Monterey Bay League crown shortly afterward with a 71-70 come-from-behind win over Aptos. In their next big outing, Alisal opened its defense of the Paul E. Walters' Tournament with an easy 56-49 romp over the St. Francis' Lancers. In the semi-finals Alisal found itself again matched with Aptos. The Trojans slipped by 66-64, but lost in the championship round to Castro Valley. Steve Sides and Dave Sawyer were named to the All - Tourney squad.

From here, the Trojans swept all of their opponents from the northern division and then the southern division, at least until they met up with North Salinas. The Vikings, who possessed the lowest record in the league, found the remedy for their team's illness and swept by Alisal, 55-51. In the next game, Alisal lost to Monterey, but North Salinas defeated second place Seaside to let Alisal clinch the division title. Steve Sides and Dave Sawyer were the top bread winners for Alisal, followed by Joe Blohm, Mike Pearce, Ronald Ritchie, and Art Barrientos, all outstanding members.

Coach Hadden applauds the players.

Ron Ritchie lays in two points to complete an Alisal fast break.

For the second year in a row, Coach Art Gilbert has compiled a vast amount of individual talent into a tight bond that has rolled over everything that got in its way. The Gilbert mentored team possessed a 18-5 over-all won-loss record and a 11-3 league record which gave them a piece of the two-way possession of first place in the Monterey Bay League south-division. They tied with Monterey.

Danny Martinez and Danny Ross were the real pace-makers for the team as they averaged 17 and 13 points respectively. Other indispensable players were Jim Corbett, Gene Pugnier, Fresca DeLaTorre, Javier Alcocer, Joe Dew, and Steve Crain.

Coach Don Rice's junior-varsity squad, like their varsity counter-parts, had one of the finest wrestling seasons in the history of the school. Alisal finished off their season with a 10-21 won-loss-tie over-all record and a 8-1-1 league record, which gave them a second place in the Monterey Bay League south-division. In league competition, the Trojans lost only once, and that was to Monterey.

Alisal marked the opening of the season with an amazing 47-17 victory over the visiting Gilroy team. But it was in the following match that Alisal found its only non-league loss, 43-21, at the hands of the Gonzales' Spartans. As league competition got under way, Alisal easily raced by all of its opponents from the the M.B.L. north. But things didn't look bright for the eastsiders as cross-town Salinas threw a big scare into Alisal as the Cowboys battled it out to a 29-29 tie. The highlight of this contest was little 103 pounder Eddie Ramirez who pinned his Cowboy opponent with only 12 seconds elapsing into the first period. Alisal then fought off a brazen North High attack, but in the following match against Monterey, the Trojans found their dual-meet championship title hopes sunk by the Toreadors. Outstanding grapplers throughout the season were Paul Hilliker, Art Ocampo, Ken Peebles, Tom Way, Bob Nichols, and David Ceja.

Young Varsity Baseball Team Shows power in mbl

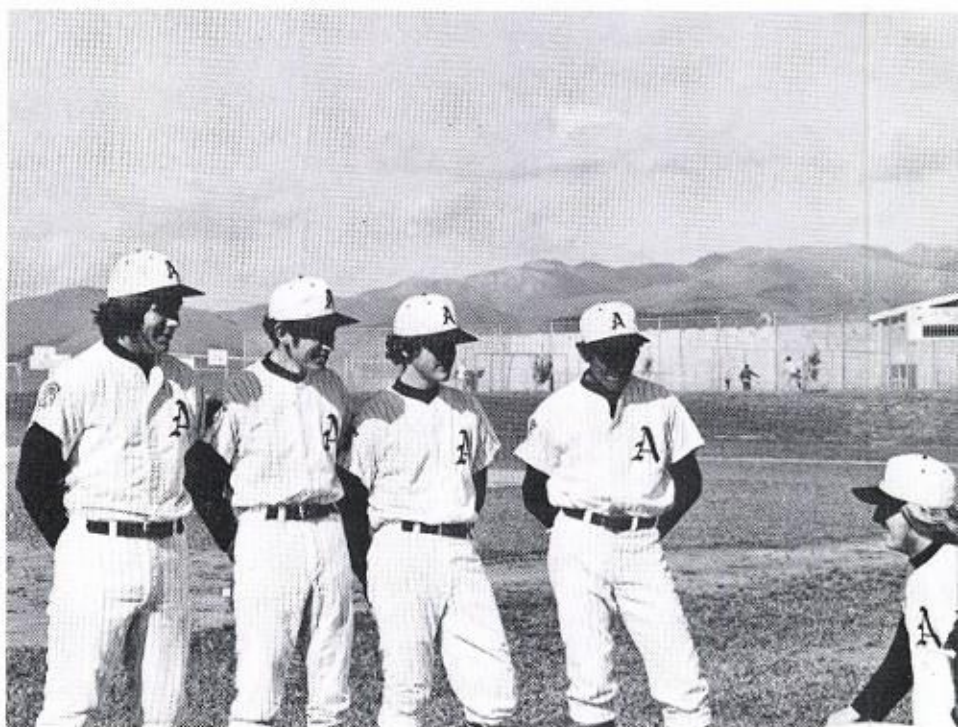

Although the baseball team lost most of its players last year, it came through with many victories this year. Returning players were seniors Kirt Andrus, Steve Bellone, and Jeff Savage followed by juniors Danny Ross and Dwane Rowe. Dominating the pitching scene were last year's junior varsity pitchers. Pitching exceptionally well throughout the season was sophomore Gary Rowe. Other pitchers were Willie Pura, Ernie Camacho, and Larry Thomas. The team even had a freshman, Leland Wilson, catching. He proved to be an encouraging player for more seasons to come. Doing a fine job getting the young rookies together and building them up was once again Coach Chuck Filice. This year's team was inexperienced but encouraging. Next year's team should be both well experienced and outstanding.

J.V.'s REBUILD for Next Year

The junior varsity baseball team, according to Coach Gary Mortensen, experienced a year of rebuilding. A very young team, the J.V.'s are mostly made up of freshmen. The season opened with a tie against Hollister, followed by losses to Salinas, Palma, and Santa Cruz.

Credited as outstanding players were Ed Richards, John Smith, Craig Andrus, Ken Peebles, Dan Comacho, and Dennis Gilbert.

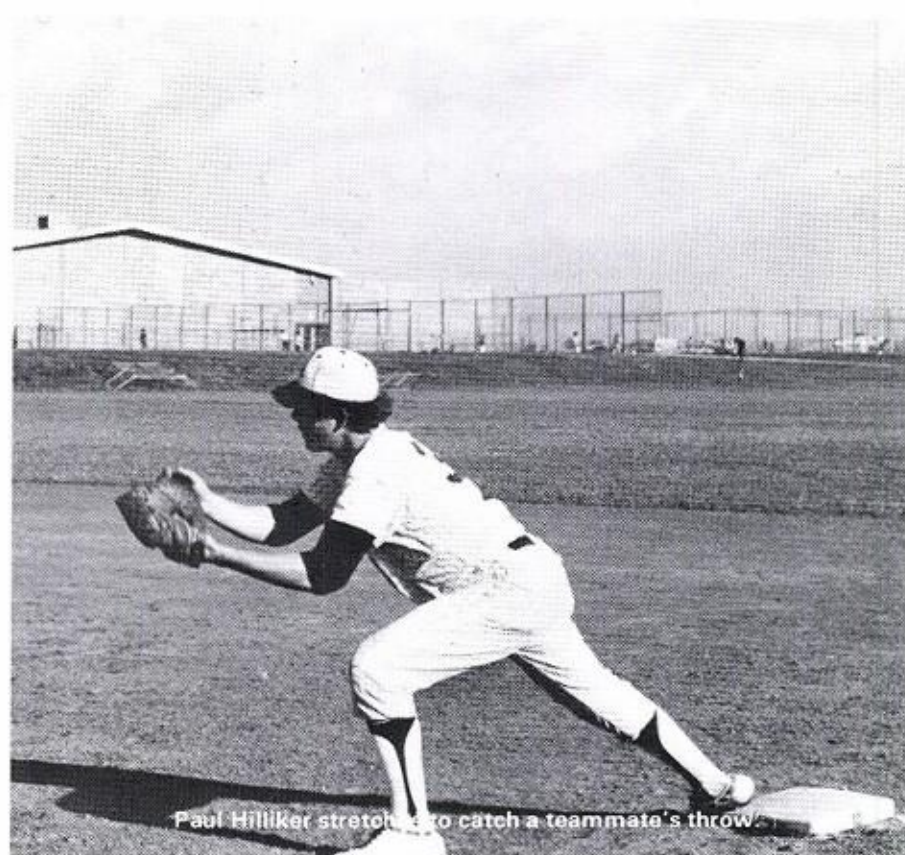

The freshmen on the J.V.'s also represented our school in a newly formed MBL freshman baseball league. This team had a fair season.

Varsity Trackmen Overpower MBL Rivals

Behind the coaching of Andy Allen and John Favero, this year's track and field team was one of the strongest Trojan teams yet. The Trojans cindermen opened their season against three year defending Mission Trail League champions, King City. Alisal, behind the powerful hurdling speed of Billy Dew, breezed past the King City squad, 81 to 85.

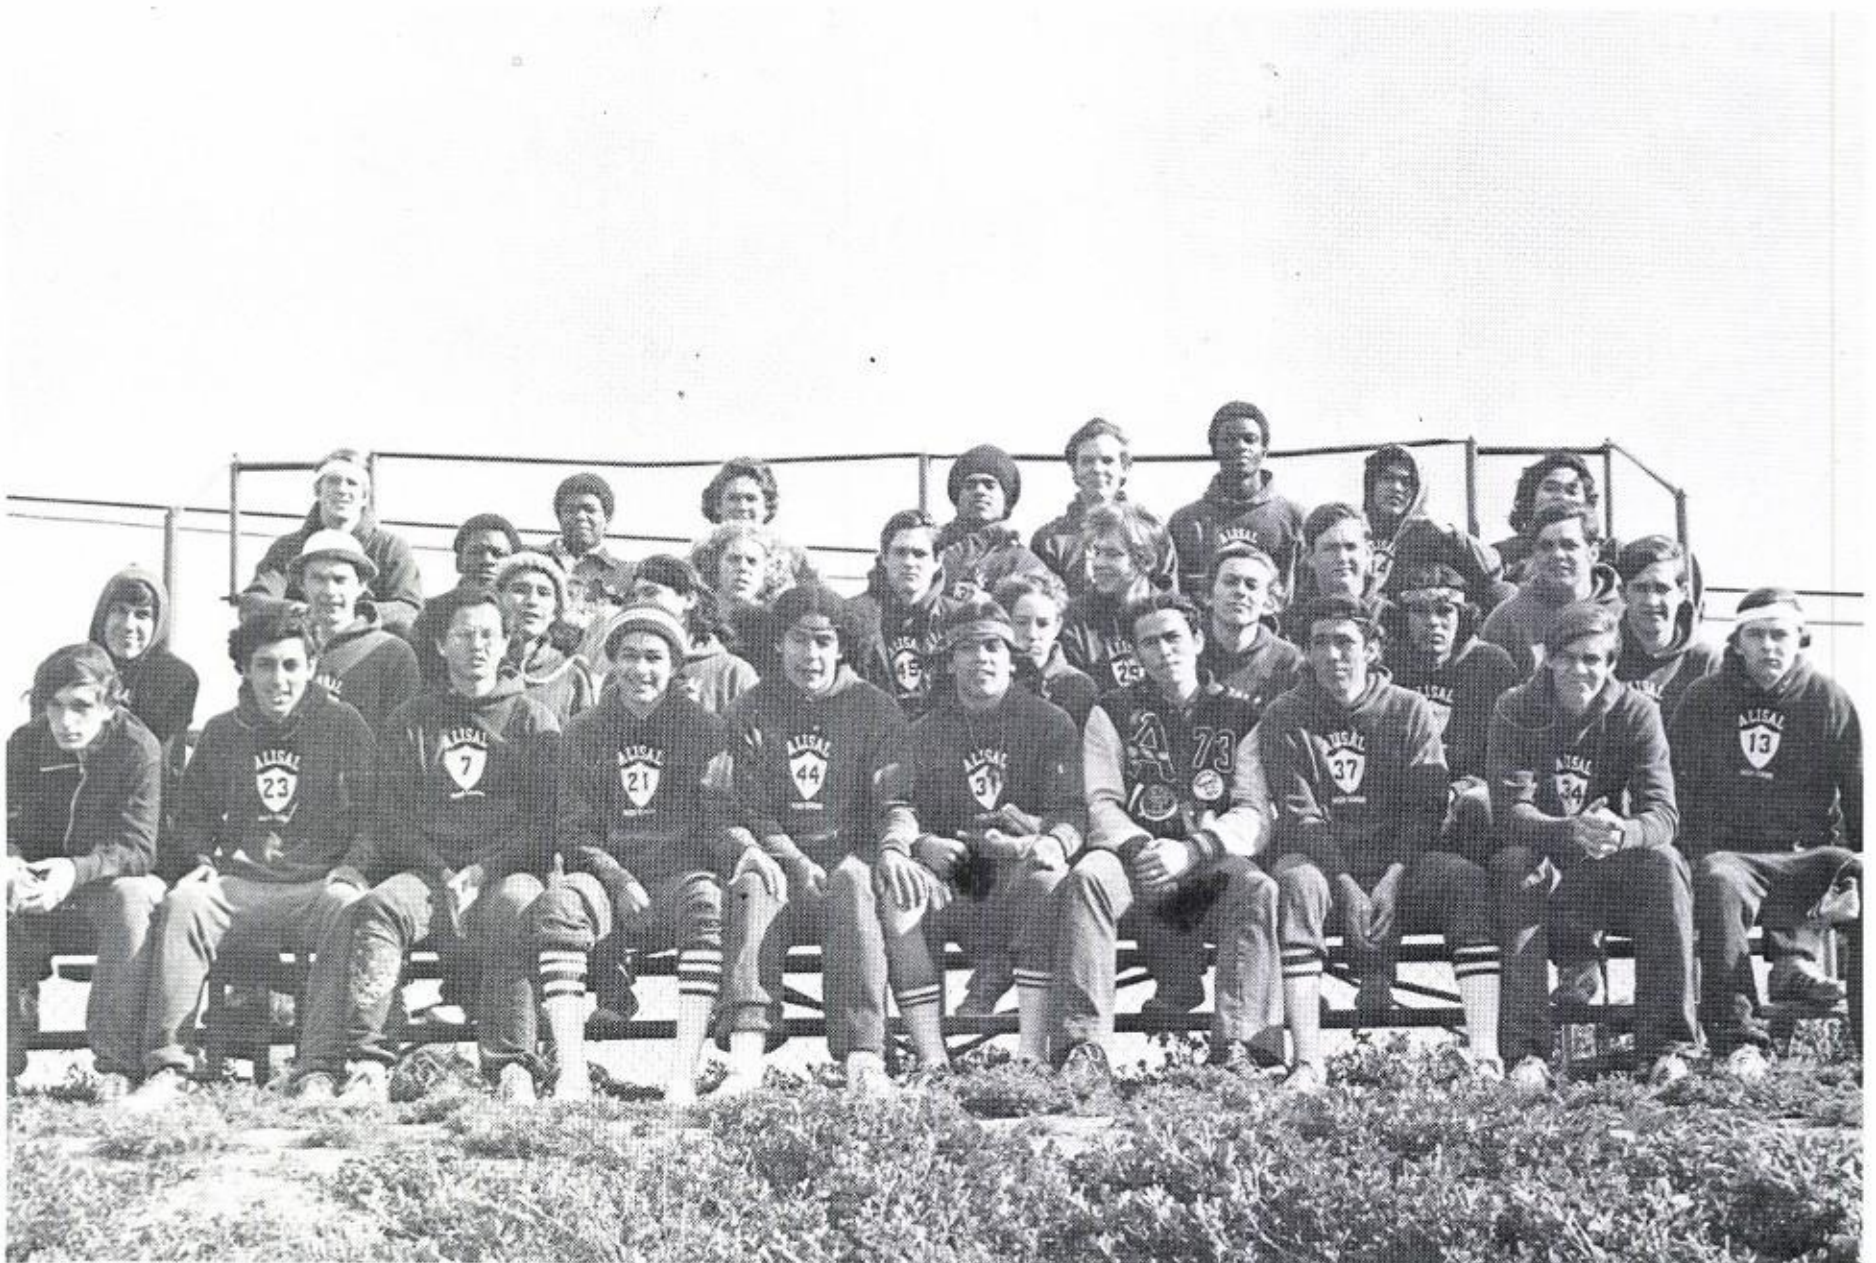

Super-stars Carlos Jacobo (discus), Bill Dew, Earl Cook (hurdles), Chris Jensen, Frank Cagle, Jim Lucero (long distance), Al Romig (pole-vault), and Alex Pardo (100 yard dash) were just a few of many who paced the striving team's efforts throughout the season.

David Dew is caught in mid-air in the long jump.

Reuben Aguillar comes to the end of his tiring trek.

Rueben Aguillar and Chris Jensen finish the first lap of their run.

Artie Garcia sprints to the finish line of the mile run.

Carlos Jacobo set a school record for hurling the discus.

Erik Stein sets the pace in the two mile.

Spanky Spangler prepares to take off the triple jump.

John Ruegg is another of Alisal's outstanding pole-vaulters.

David Dew and Al Romig cross the finish line in the 100 yard dash.

Frosh-Soph Cindermen Show MBL Strength

Alisal sported a fair freshman-sophomore track season this year mainly because of the basic inexperience of the team. Most of last year's standouts were moved up to the varsity squad. Sophomore Dennis Maduli headed the list of stars in his hurdle specialty. Also, Jim Romig had an outstanding year in the high jump. Adding to the team's strength were: Doug Gray, Mike Huntley, Elias Rivera and Tony Taylan.

The frosh-soph cinder men were led by coaches Allen, Favero, and Herrera.

Doug Gray jumps to a win in the triple jump.

Mike Terry finishes an exhausting two mile run.

Richard Briggs swimming the backstroke.

The 1973 Alisal Swim Team suffered a frustrating season due mainly to a small turnout. Coaches Bob Enea and Milt Pickford continued relentlessly though, hoping to build a strong nucleus for next season.

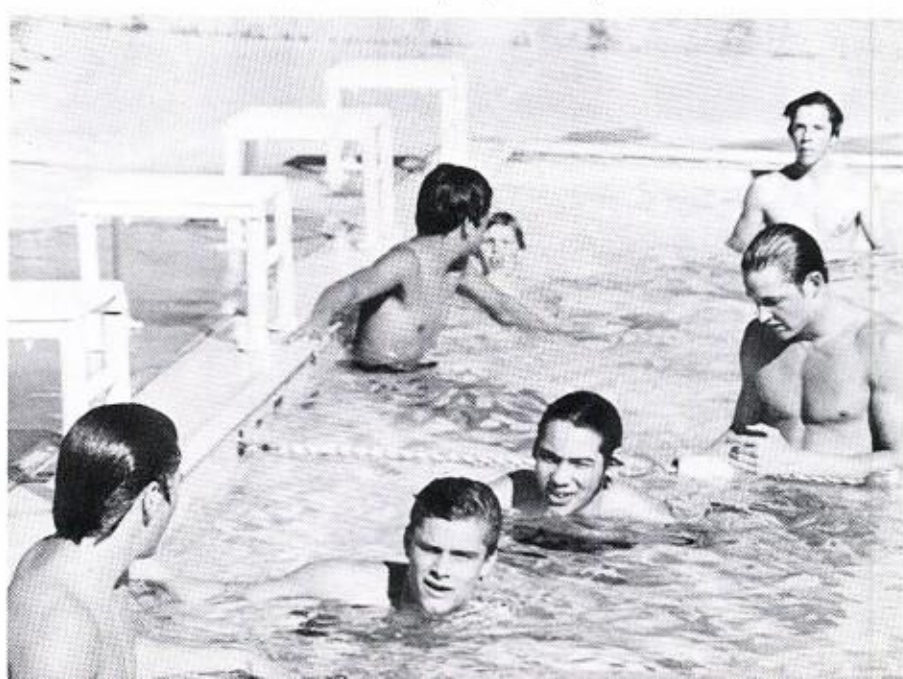

Richard Briggs, a freshman and newcomer to the team, provided much of the effort along with teammates Rick McCollough, Richard Brannon, Dave and Rick Carrillo, and Steve Locke.

Golfers Accomplish Exceptional Season

Seeing the Alisal High School Golf team practice their birdies, putts, and drives was a common sight to see at the Salinas Fairways. The golf team faired quite well during their season, winning many of the matches and improving their form and style. Carl Sundgren was this year's golf coach. He cited John Riley as an outstanding golfer for this year's team.

Soccer Team Places Second in MBL

The 1972-73 Soccer Team

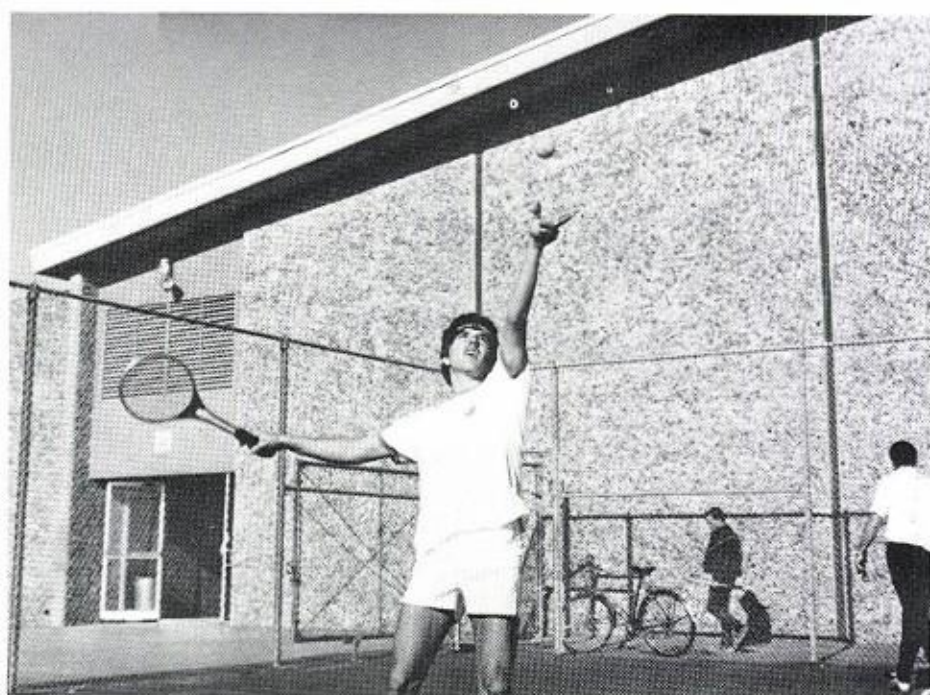

Jose Solis steals the ball from Gonzales.

Soccer became an MBL sport this year and Alisal was a power in this sport also. The young team went throughout the season defeating teams like Gonzales, Salinas, North Salinas, and Hollister. But the soccer squad did not have the honor of becoming the first MBL soccer champs as they were defeated twice by a strong and experienced Watsonville squad.

Heading the team were Jose Solis and Roberto Ruiz. The team was ably coached by Mike McGraw.

Jose Solis kicked the ball through Gonzales players.

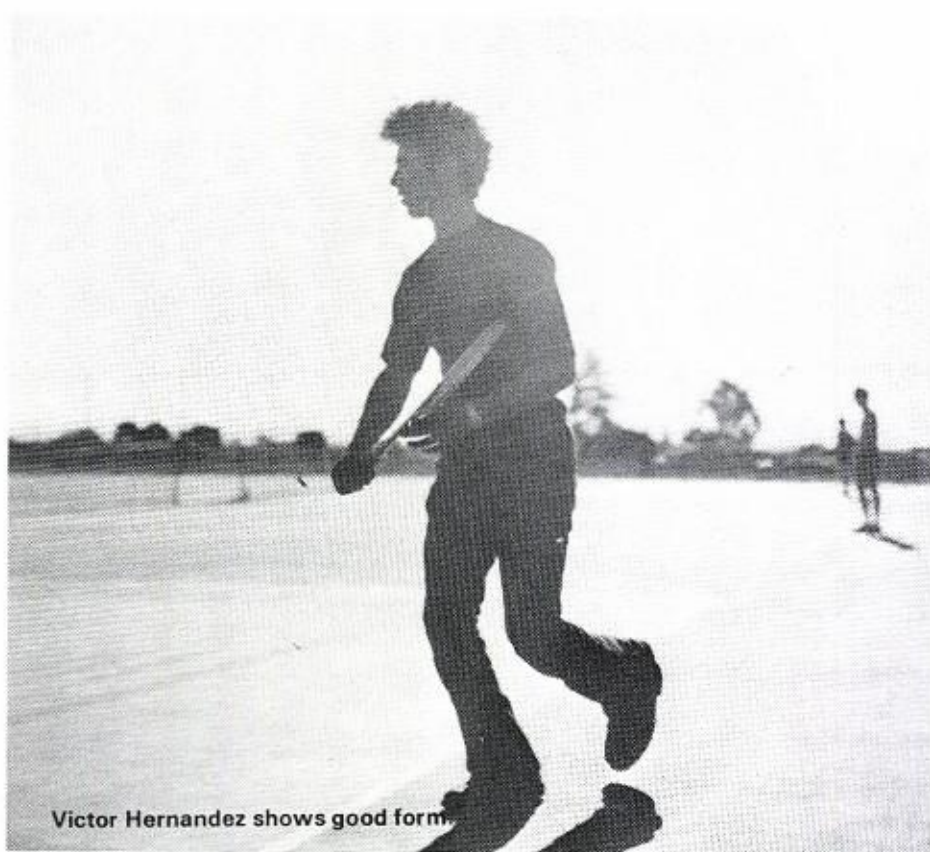

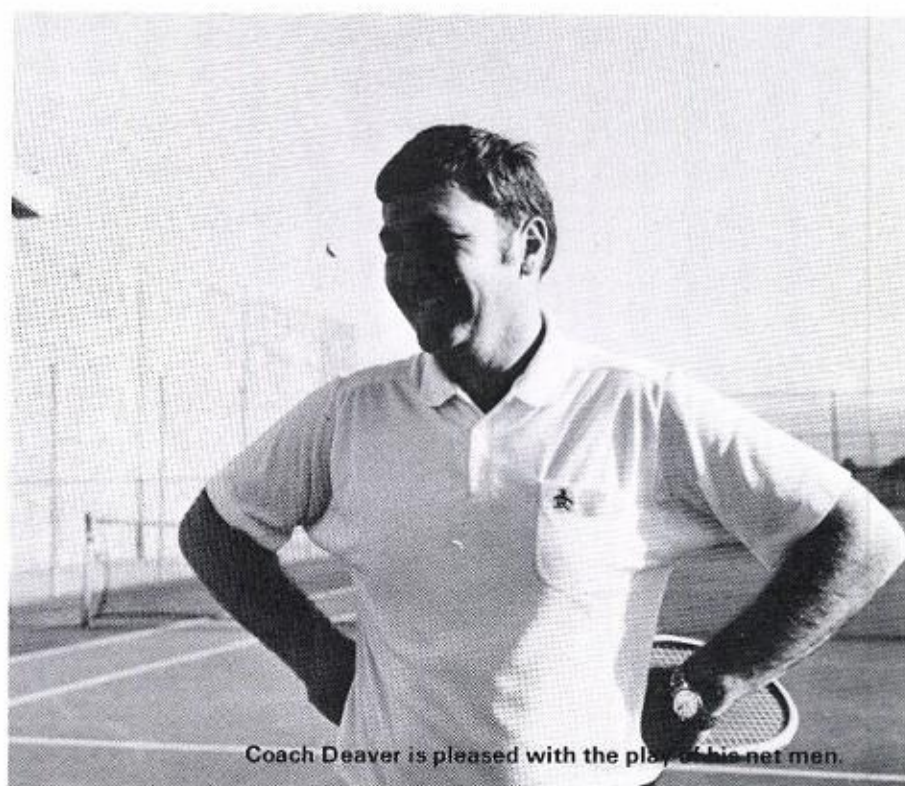

Lewis Brewer serves to open his match.

Scott Rogers returns the ball across court.

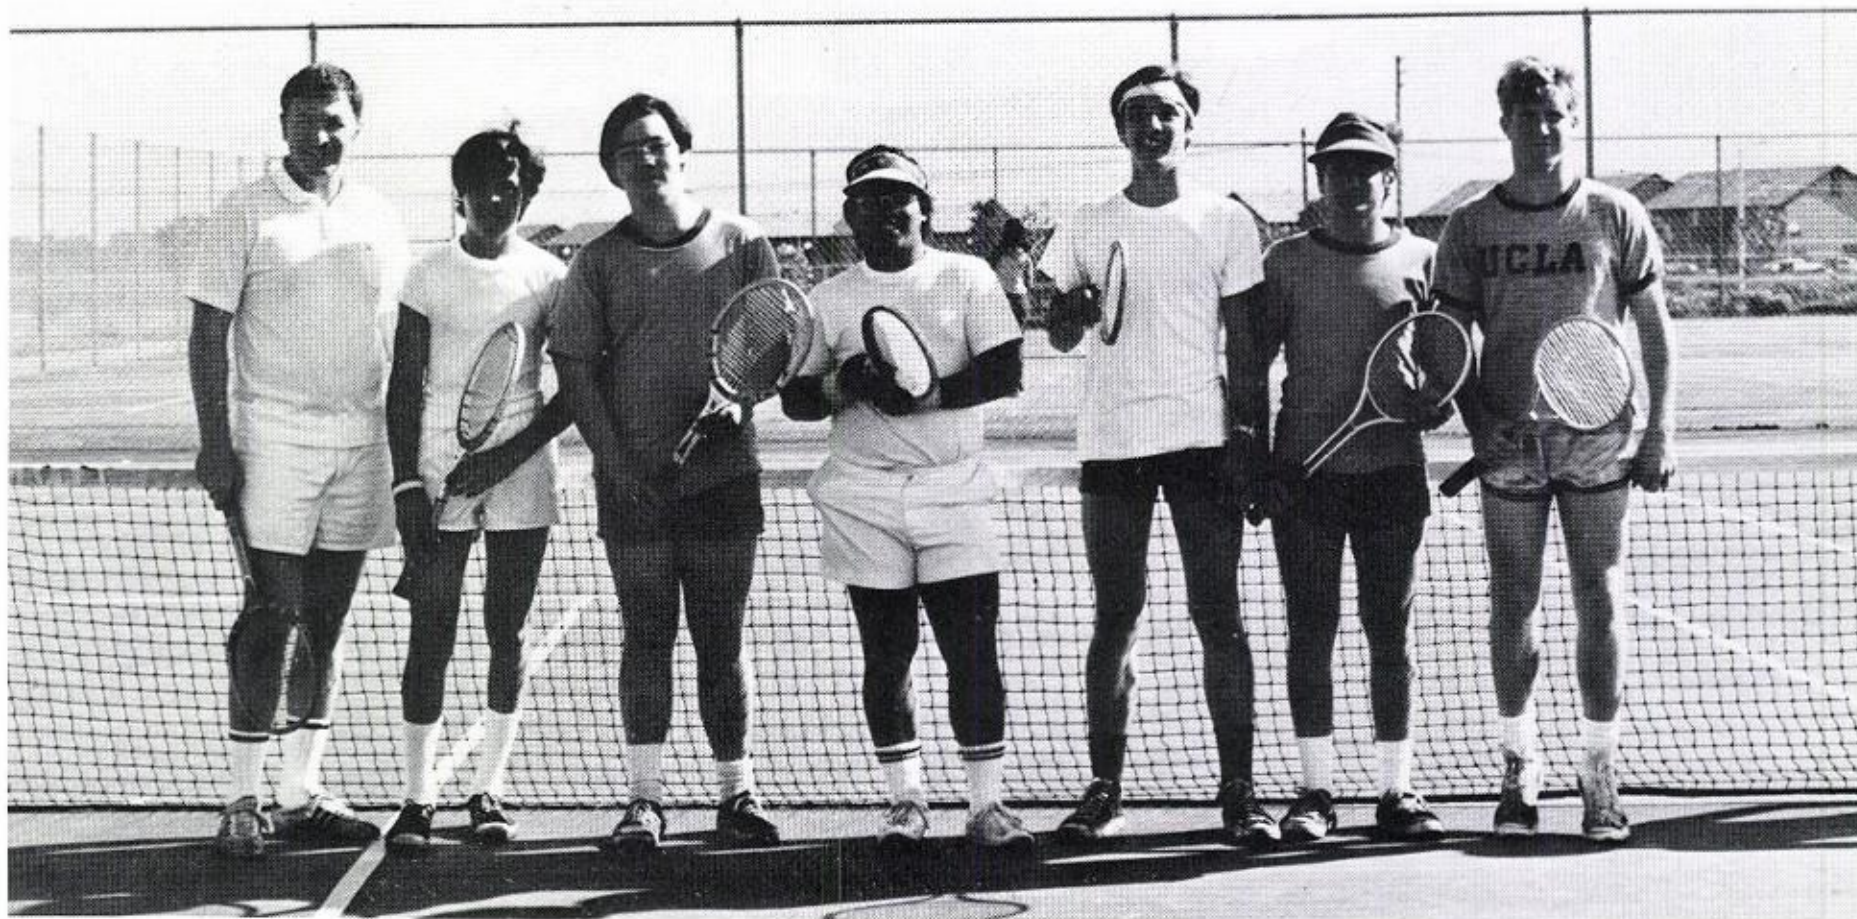

Victor Hernandez shows good form.

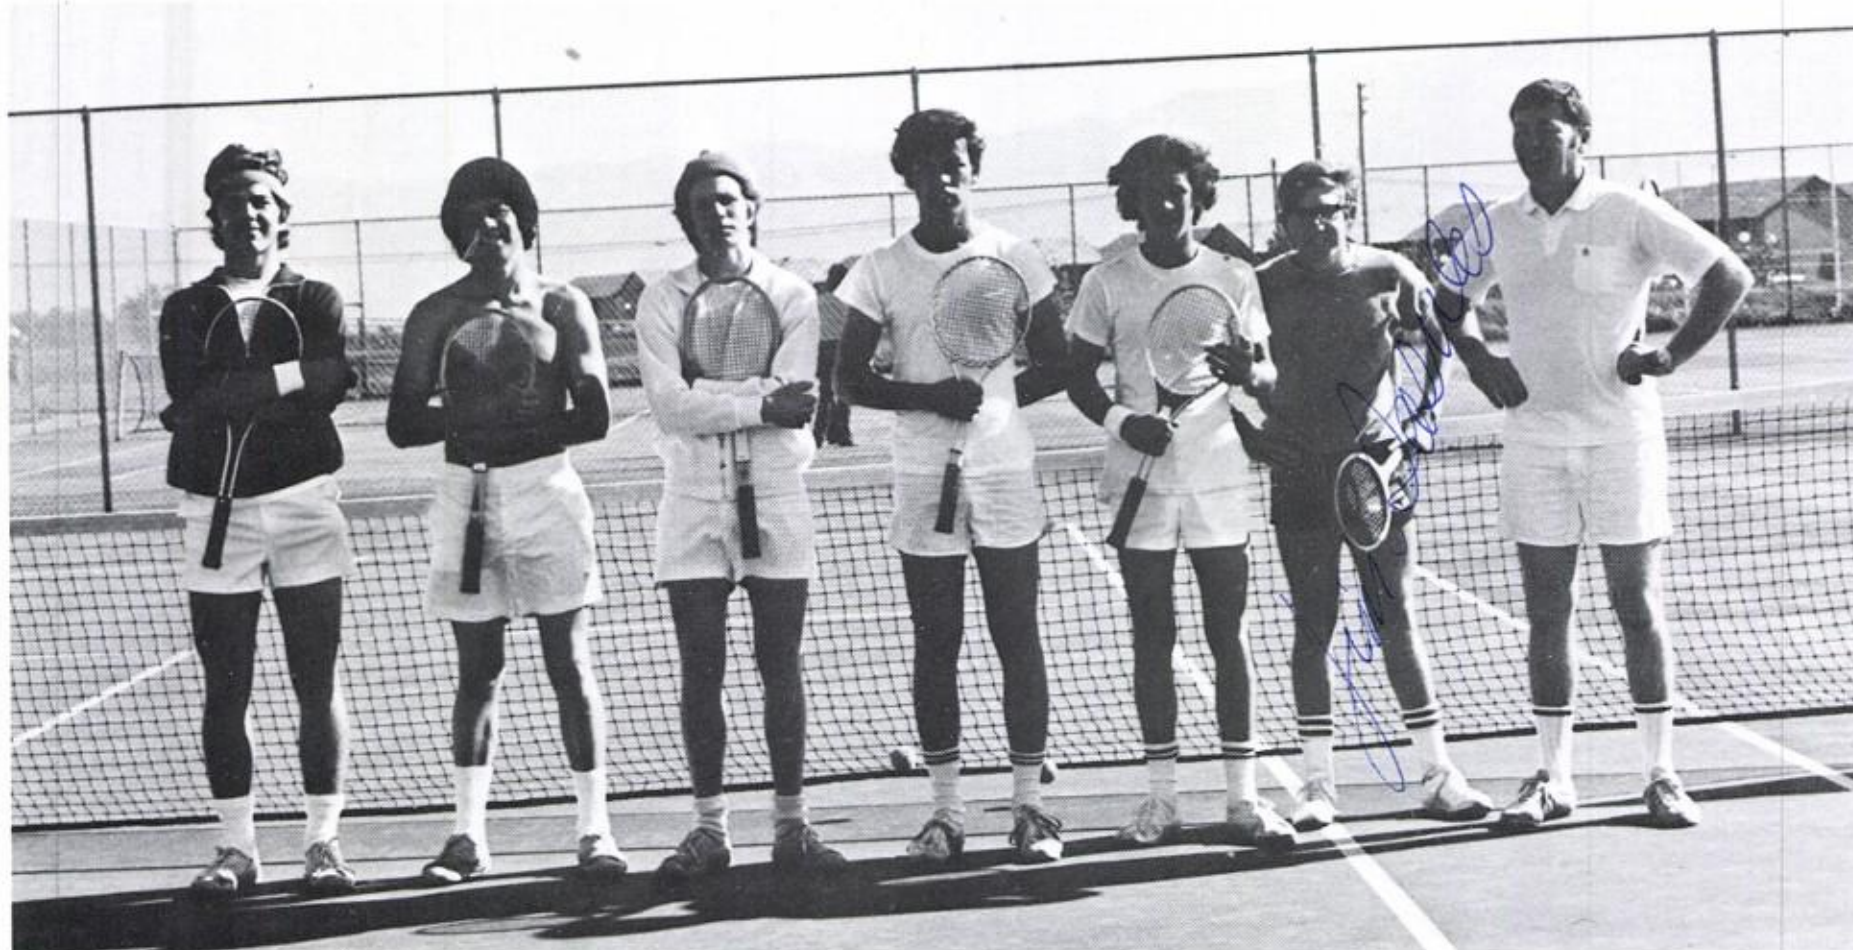

Coach Deaver is pleased with the play of his net men.

Alisal Netmen Perform Well in MBL Play

Brewer backhands the ball.

Coached by Mr. Deaver, the Alisal Tennis Team again demonstrated their excellent form this year. With returning veterans, Lewis Brewer, Albert Salinas, Scott Rogers, Earl Bounds, Mike Lucero, and Jim Sasules, the tennis team was wholly composed of seniors who appeared to be in perfect condition. Participating throughout the year brought endurance and experience to the members of the team. Even though their first few games revealed the uncertainty of the long season ahead of them, the tennis team finished its year with ease and composure.

Girls' Tennis Team Undergoes a Fair Season

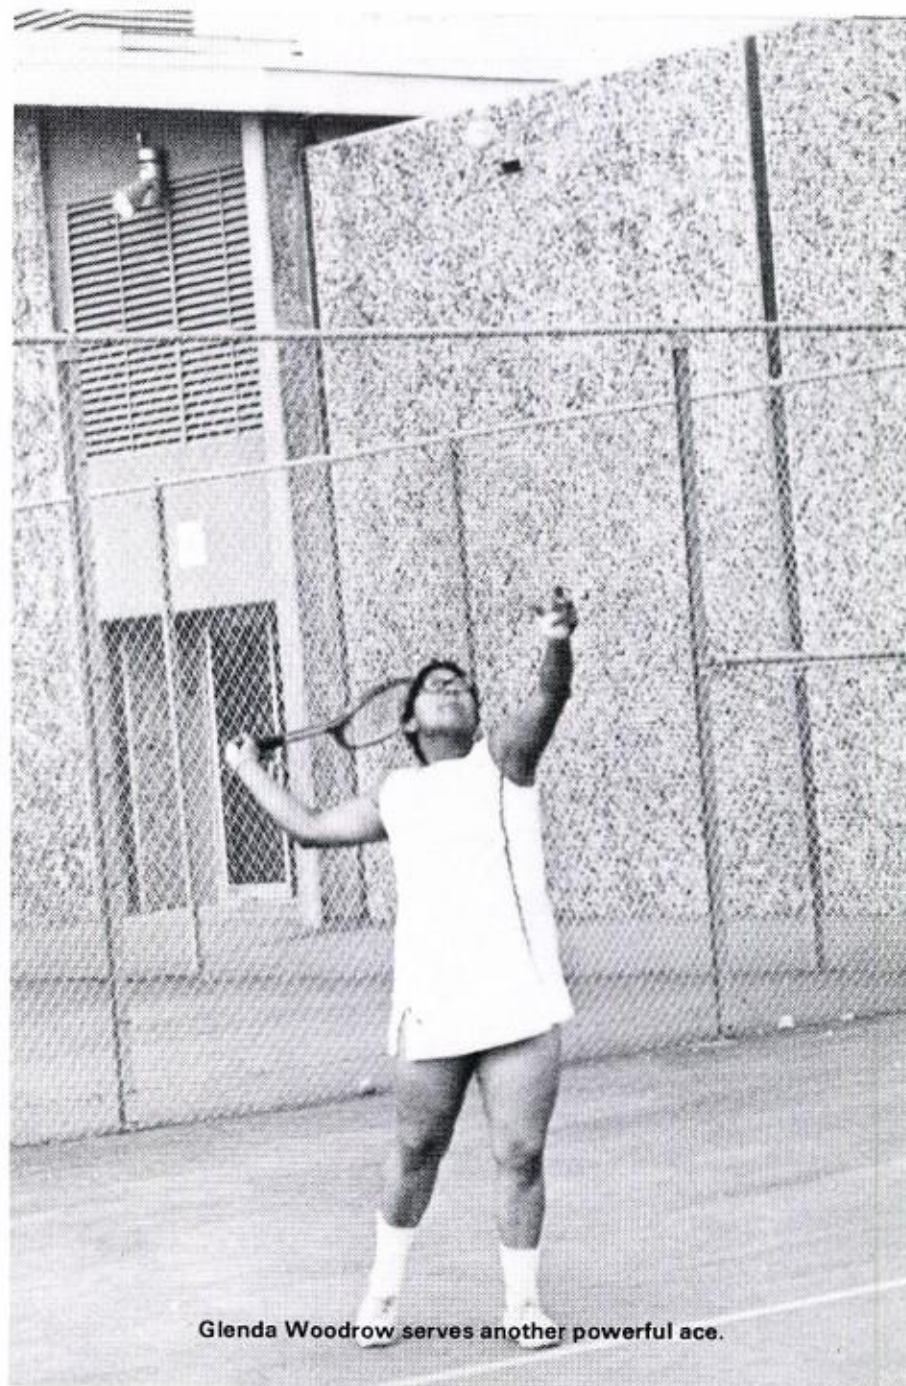

Led by such exceptional players as Karen Briggs and Jonetta Chenea, the 1972-73 girls' varsity tennis team faced some difficult competition but concluded its season with a commendable 4-4-1 win-loss record.

Two doubles teams consisting of Glenda Woodrow and May Domalaog, and Terri Bozzo and Joyce Elson were also outstanding.

The junior varsity team, coached by Miss Alexander, produced promising future varsity team members for coming seasons.

Mrs. Camany, varsity coach, found both teams to be a terrific and eager group of girls.

With most of the team returning, the 1973 season promises to be hopeful.

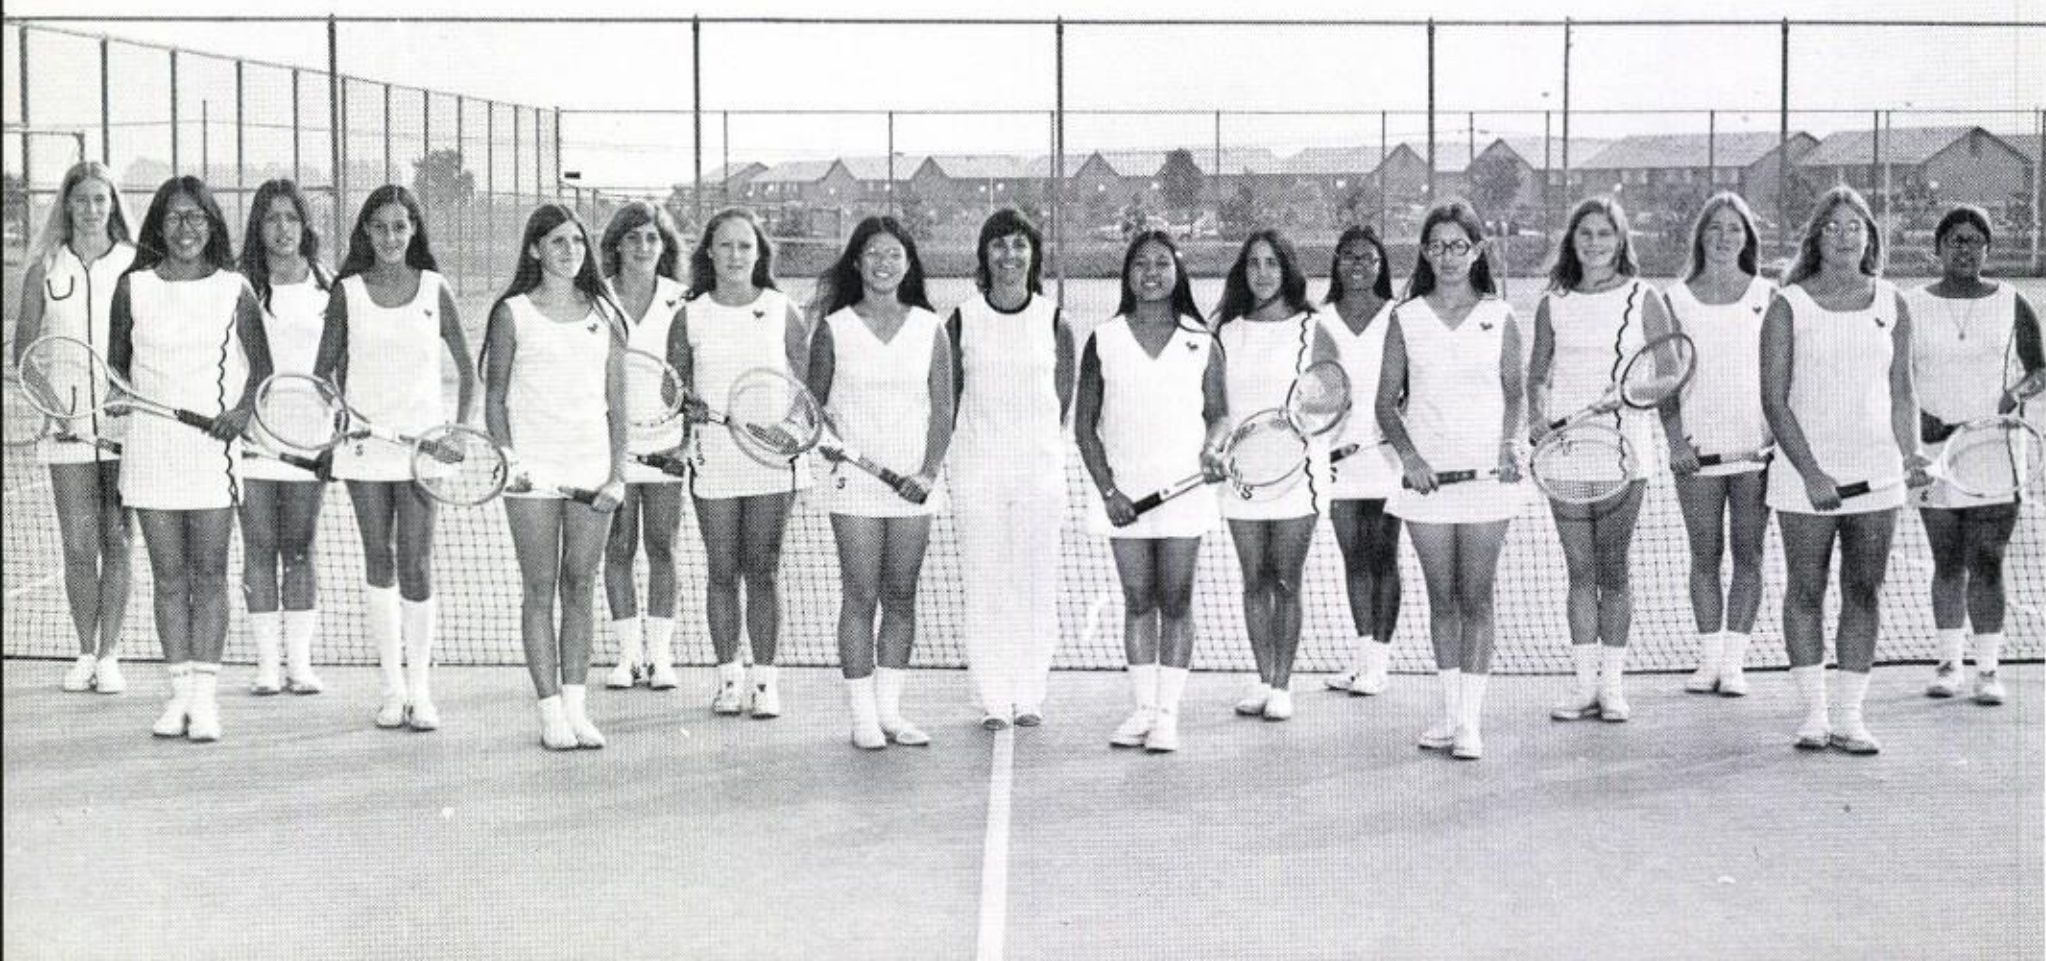

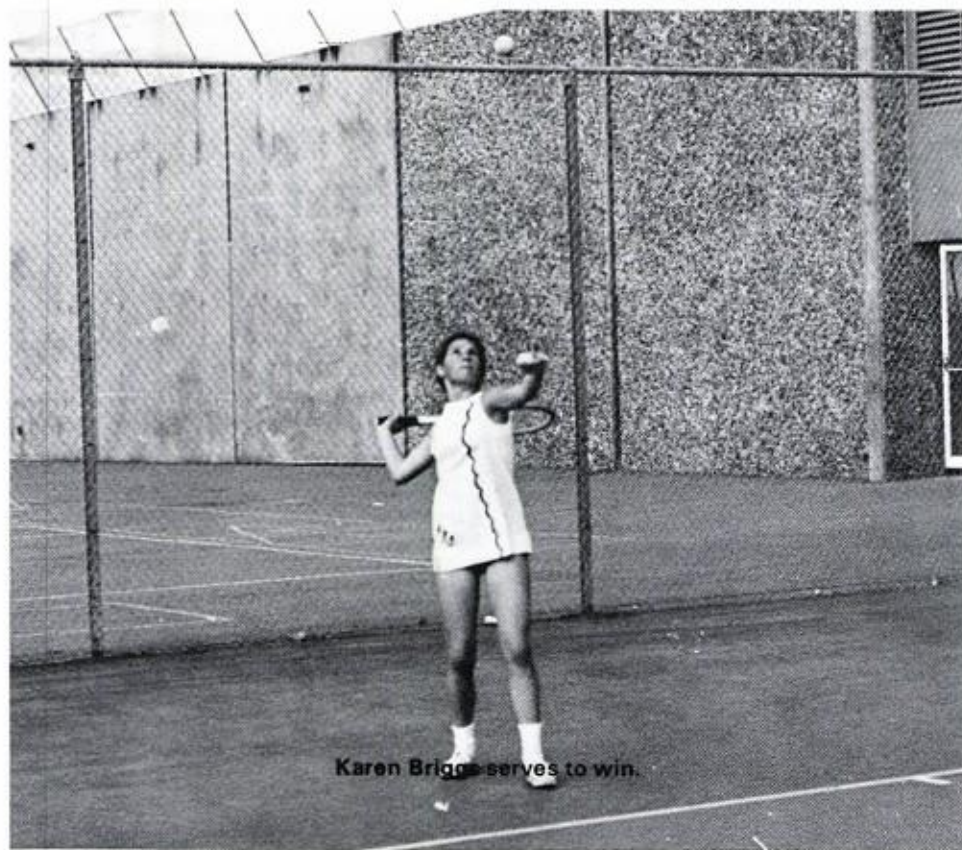

Glenda Woodrow serves another powerful ace.

Display future Strength

What's red, white, and blue and swims in the water? The Alisal High Girls' Swim team! The team did something out of the ordinary this year-they had a Swim-a-Thon! They used the money made from the very successful Swim-a-Thon to pay for those patriotic swim suits, and we all agree that they really add a little something to the swimming pools!

This year's outstanding swimmers were: Mary Ann Martin, Susan Stefani, Linda Jeantrout, Sharon Andrus, Linda Lightfoot, Beth Dyk, Cheryl Yednak, Susan Ingram, and Patti Parker. Captains for the year were Marsha Stockton and Sharon Andrus.

When we asked Mrs. Barton what she had to say of this year's swim team, she replied that this was an exceptionally fine year for the girls, and that the team showed good potential. She hopes next year will be as good.

Ruegg, S. Yednak, C. Pemberton, C. Yednak, A. Deome, B. Dyk, C. Jackson, C. Favero, S. Andrus, S. Tonus, K. Heurly, Mgr. Absent: S. Ingram.

Morgan Hill Basketball Tourney highlights Girls' Basketball Season

Placing second in the Morgan Hill Basketball Tournament highlighted the girls' 1973 basketball season. The team consisted of outstanding members from the "A" and "B" teams. "A" team members were Glenda Woodrow, Leila Damasco, Debbie Geissler, Karen Briggs, May Domalaog, and Joyce Samudio. Outstanding "B" team players were Velina Baggett and Gloria Orozco. This superior team defeated all but Fremont High School in the play-offs resulting in a well-earned second place.

Coach DiVall thought the season was fine, and she has high hopes for the 1974 season.

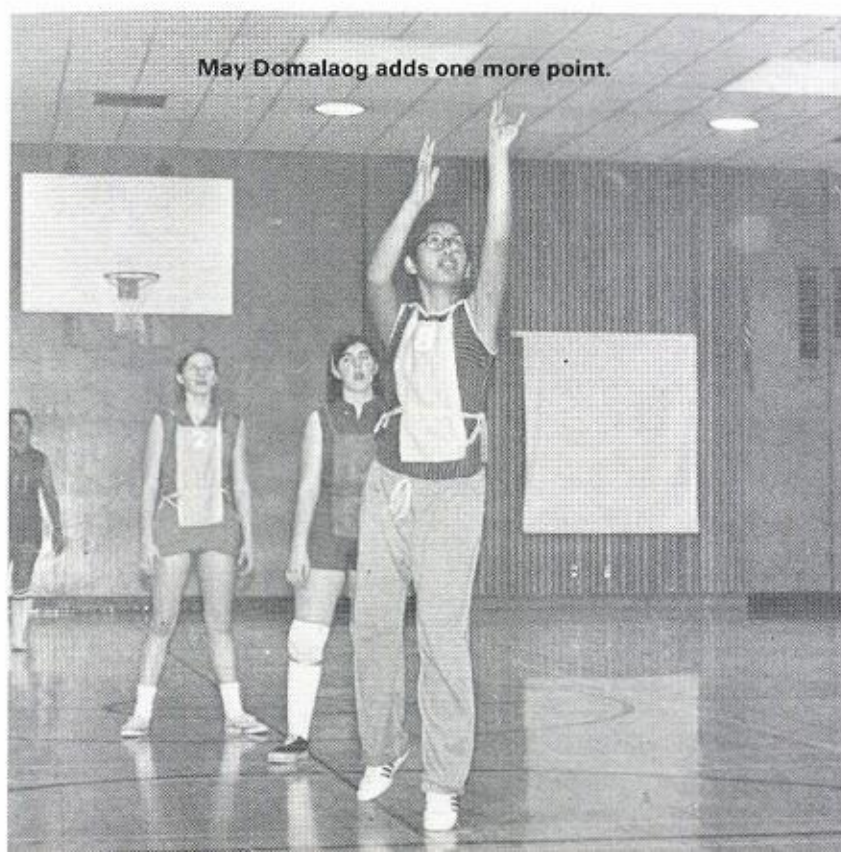

A Team: L. Damasco, K. Briggs, J. Samudio, M. Jefferson, M. Domalaog, D. Geissler, G. Woodrow.

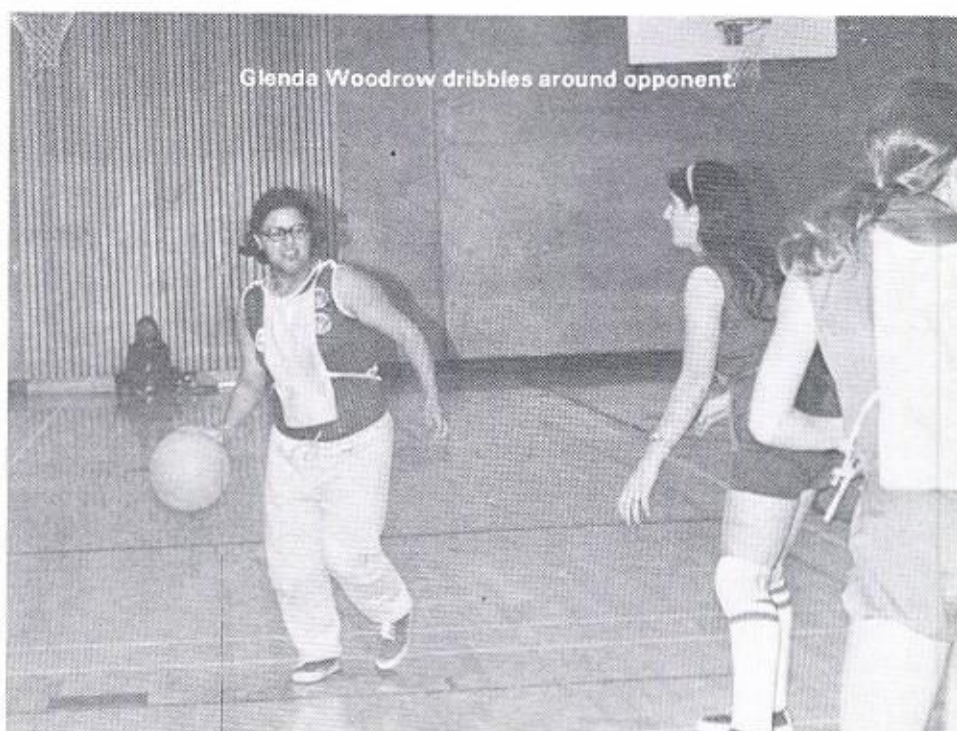

Marlene Jefferson attempts a basket.

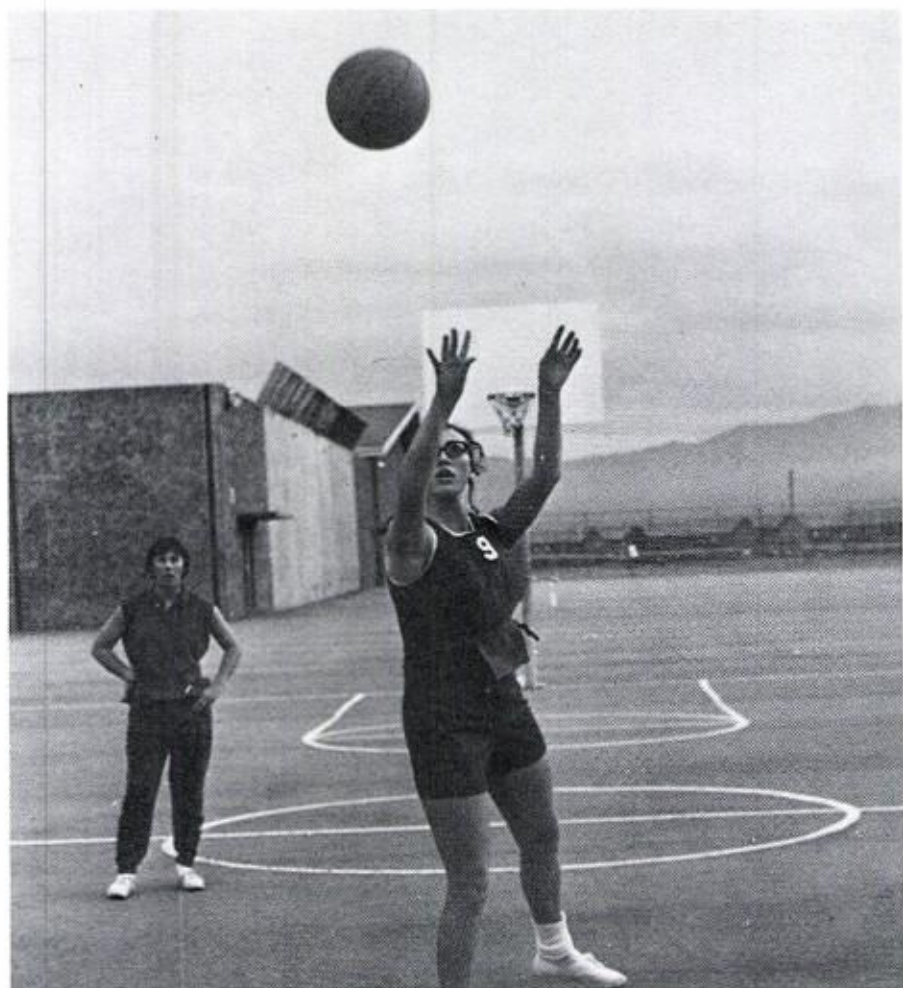

Karen Briggs shoots lay-up.

May Domalaog adds one more point.

Glenda Woodrow dribbles around opponent.

Velina Baggett attempts a free throw.

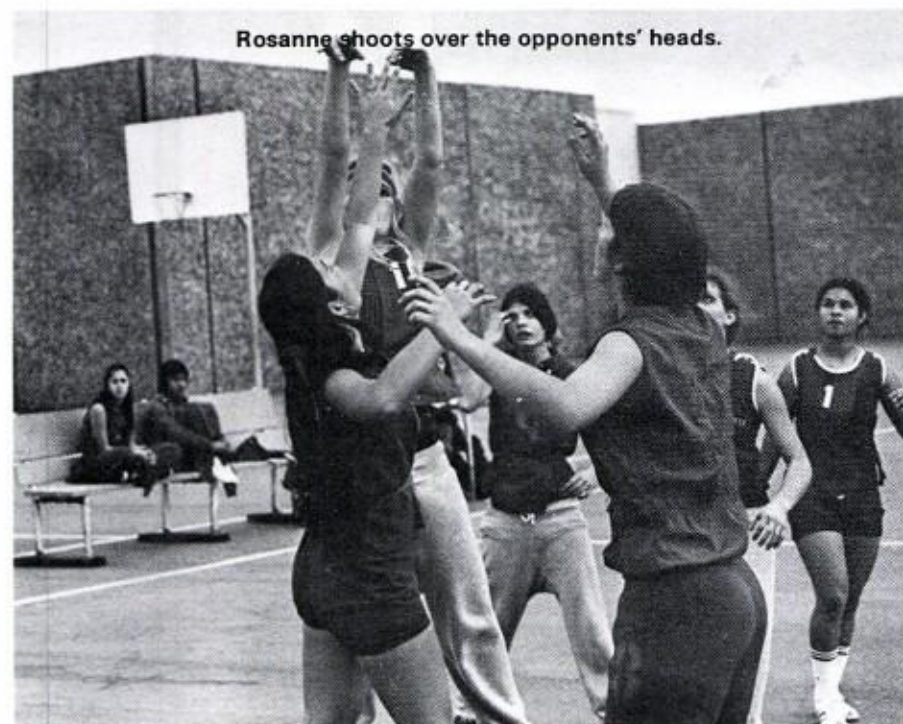

B. Team: K. Doris, G. Orozco, J. Chaboya, D. Hoskins, D. Smith, R. Ryburn, V. Baggett.

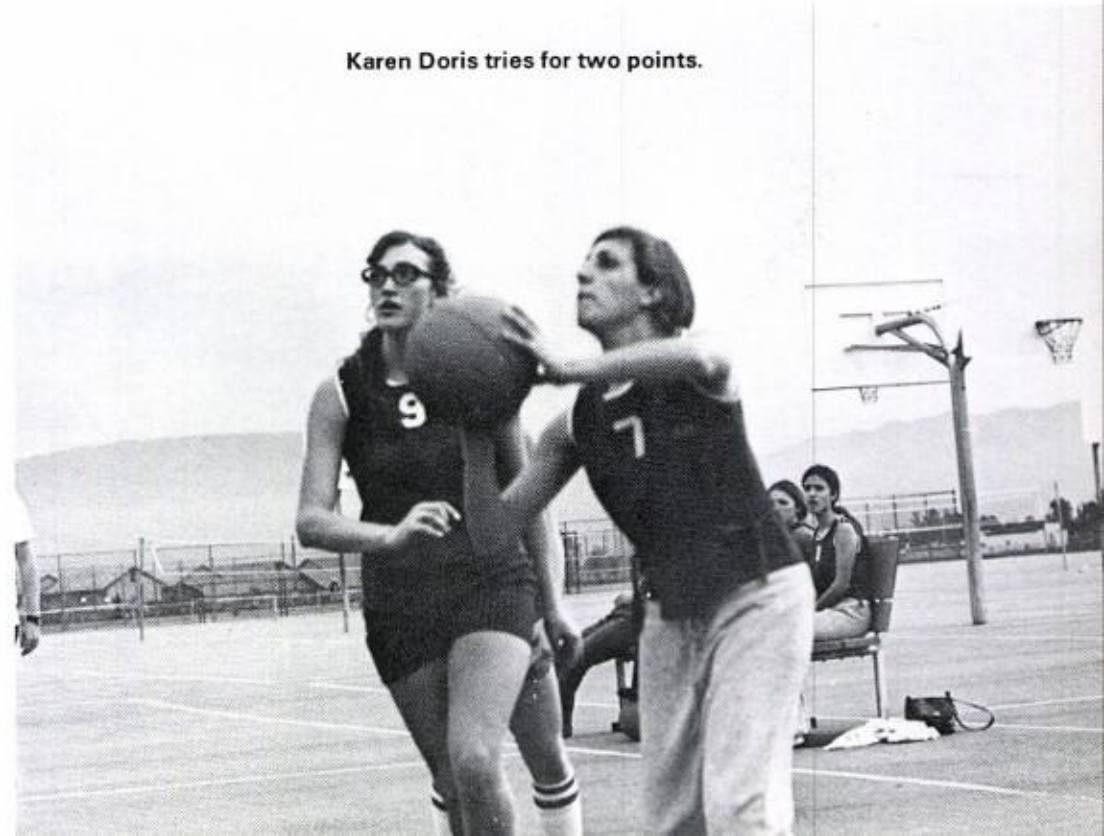

Rosanne Ryburn aims carefully.

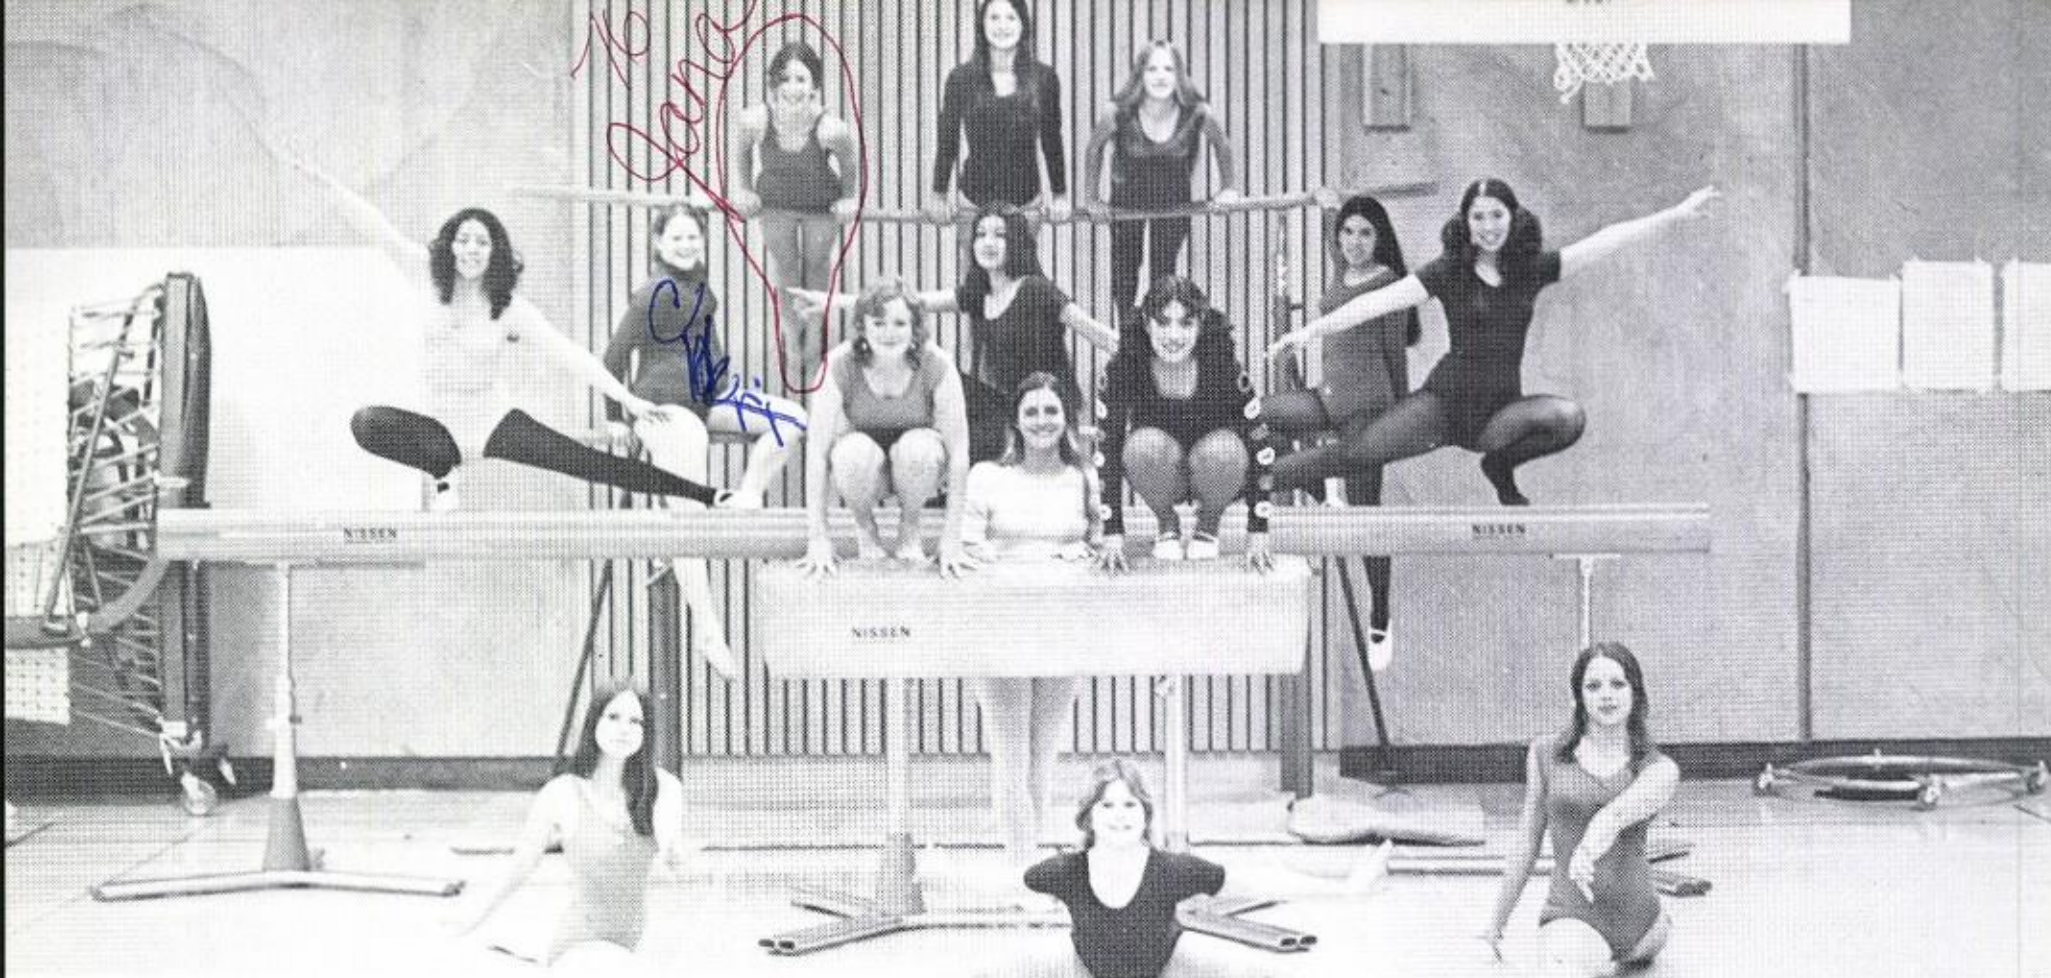

"The sky is falling! The sky is falling!"

Rosanne shoots over the opponents' heads.

Karen Doris tries for two points.

Outstanding Gymnasts Qualify in Regional Meet

This year the girls' gymnastics team had many new faces. These girls worked diligently learning both new routines and the gracefulness of a top gymnast. Alisal was proud to be represented by four outstanding gymnasts in the Redwood City Regional Meet. They were Priscilla Lozada on the balance beam, Florence Ellevan, all around gymnast, Maria Cuellar, vaulting, and Melanie Hauschild, all around gymnast.

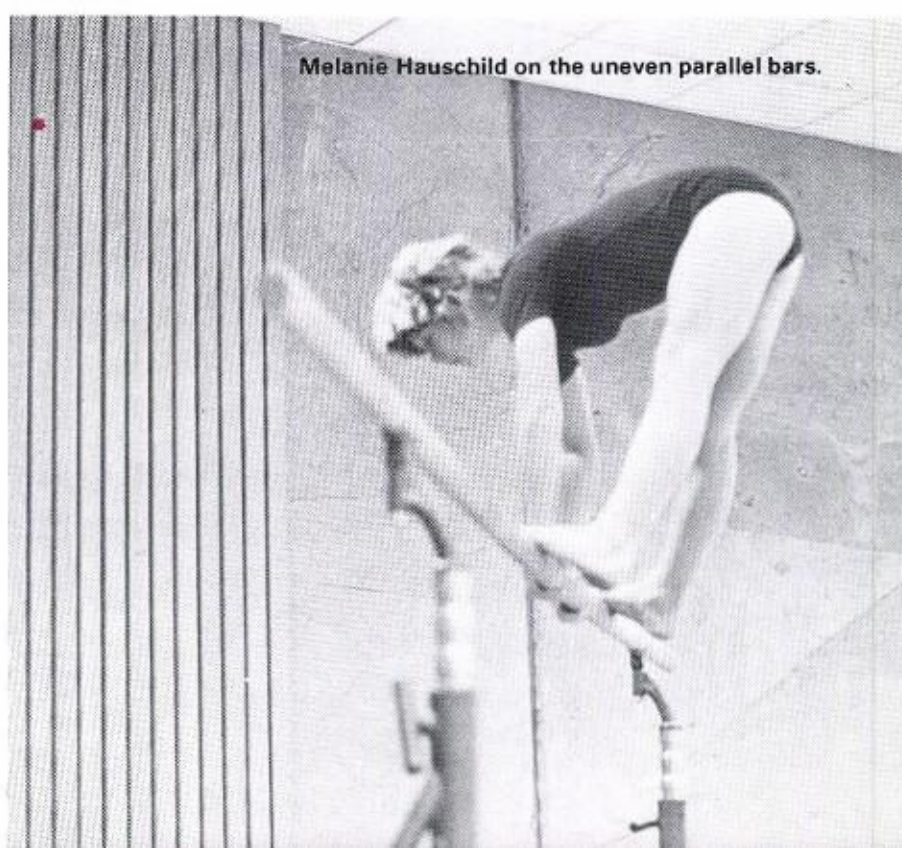

Miss Little commented that with so many new faces on the gymnastic's team, the 1974 season is sure to be successful.

Florence Ellevan strives for Olympic style.

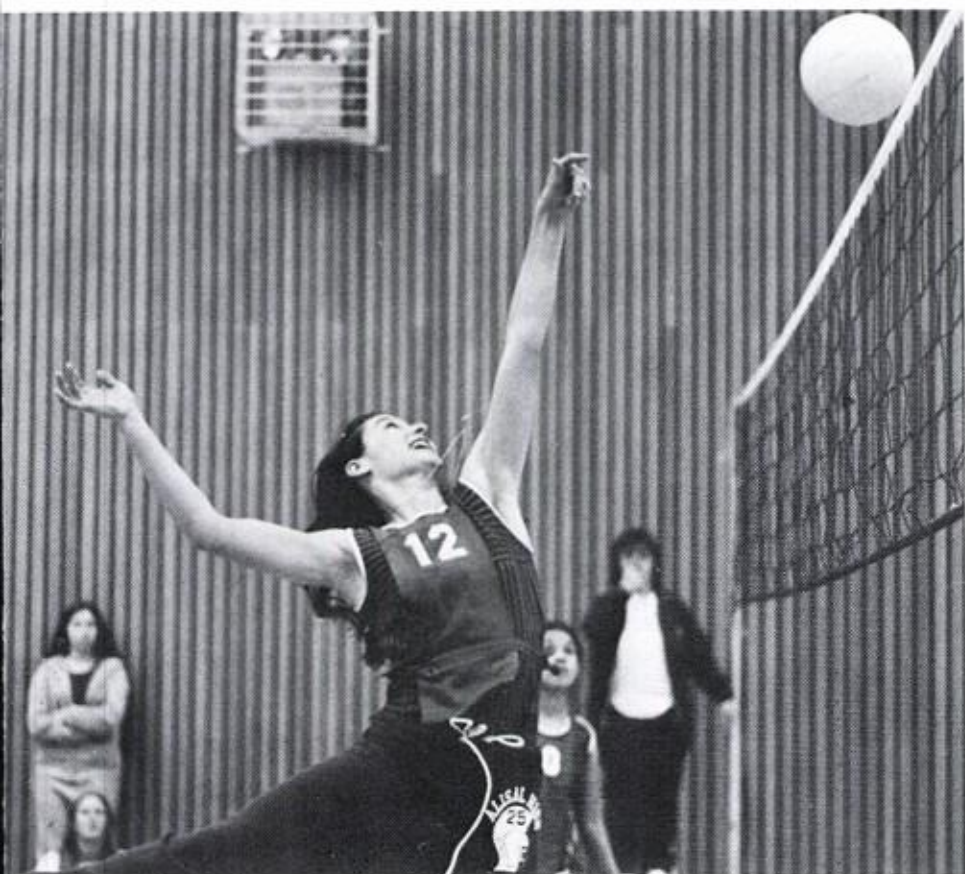

Priscilla Lozada shows perfect balance.

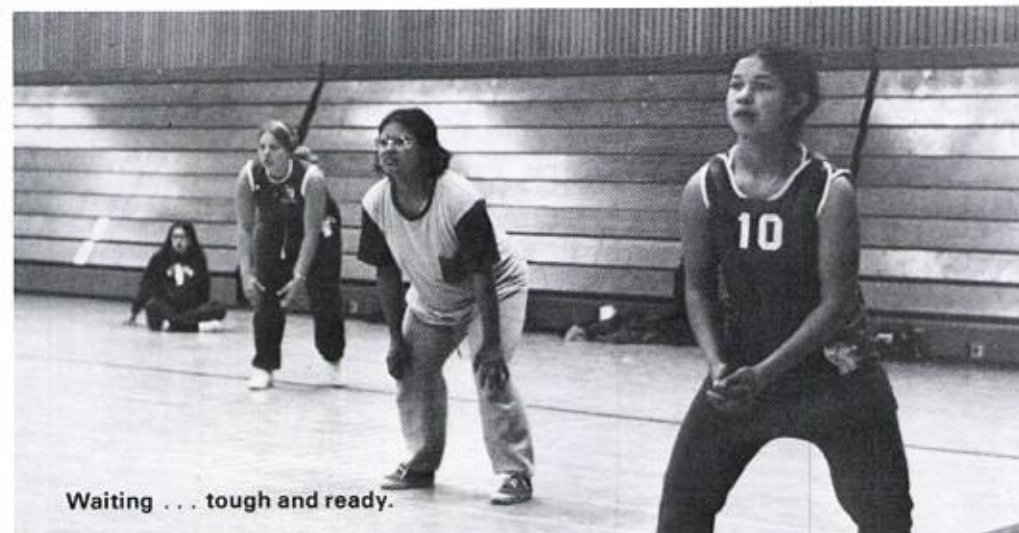

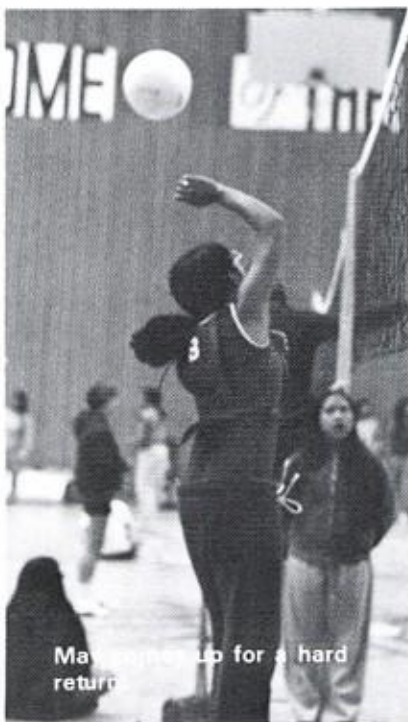

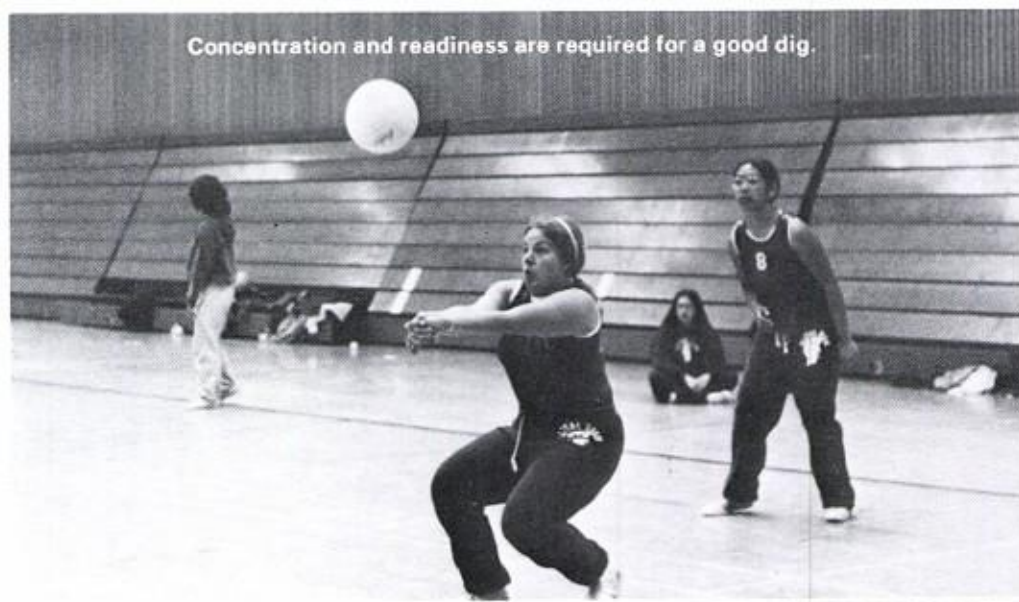

Melanie Hauschild on the uneven parallel bars.

G.A.A. Volleyball Experiences Tough Competition

Florence Ellevan stretches for a spike.

Under the fine coaching of newcomer Miss Alexander, the 1973 Girls' Volleyball Teams met some tough competition but came through with a fair season. The teams consisted of girls participating in the Girls' Athletic Association and were divided into the varsity, junior varsity, and freshman teams. The individual teams showed fine team spirit throughout the season and are looking forward to an even better 1974 season.

Left to right, front row: J. Pabros, M. Siababa, C. Camany, D. DePartti, L. Damasco, G. Orozco, J. Chaboya, M. Waite, M. Sum, Adena Statzer, second row: E. Batara, E. Bandong, B. Agpaoa, L. Edu, J. Black, D. Lepper, B. Batara, V. Buen, V. Nelson, G. Jackson, Miss Alexander, third row: M. Lee, M. Doris, J. Elson, G. Woodrow, M. Domalaog, F. Ellevan, P. Jimenez, K. Briggs, L. Sirwet, A. Malari, G. Domalaog, B. Belcher, J. Carilla, last row: A. Echon, T. Kong, M. Brammer, T. Gonzales, T. Bozzo, D. Geissler, C. Favero, K. Padilla, V. Baggett, C. Yednak, S. Andrus, C. Pemberton, D. Valverde, V. Jimenez, D. Sims, K. Doris, Mary Cunha

With the combined coaching of Mrs. Barton and Miss DiVall, the 1973 Girls' Track Team sprinted through a very rewarding season. The girls worked hard at their endeavors resulting in some well-earned wins. As a group, the team showed fine performances throughout the season. Some exceptionally fine team members Miss DiVall cited were Anna Herrera, discuss and shot put, Emma Cardona, 880 yd. run, Grace Bandong and Jonetta Chenea, sprints, and Cathy Powell, hurdles. Special recognition was given to Rachel Amparano who broke the school record for the mile run with a time of 6:29.7.

Next season, a strong core of tracksters will be returning to dominate the track.

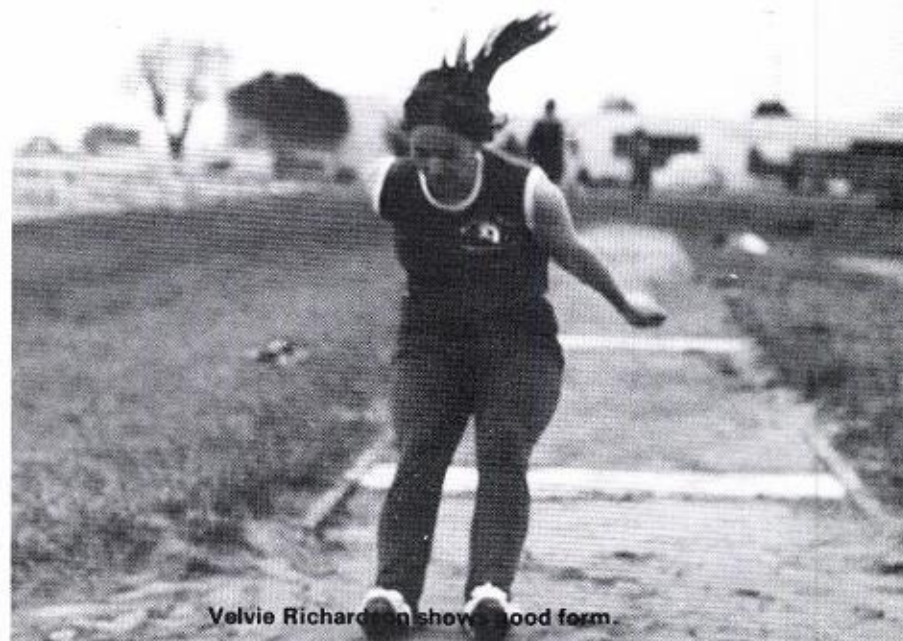

Coach DiVall joins Terri Bozzo in a quick lap.

Linda Lightfoot practices at the long jump.

Denise Adams warms up before getting down to business.

Velvie Richardson shows good form.

a Very Special Lady: Miss Minnie Drewes

One of the most respected women of our school is Miss Minnie Drewes. Most students saw her in the role of policewomen, but for many students and faculty alike Miss Drewes was a person worthy of knowing at a personal level. At many activities Miss Drewes was a willing volunteer and she proved to be an expert at throwing pies during rallies. To just say thank-you for the many years of service is not enough, for we are deeply indebted to Miss Drewes because without her this school would not have run nearly as well nor achieved the status it has gained.

For your many years with us, your willingness to help, and for caring, we offer our sincere appreciation. We'll miss you, Miss Drewes.

time, we must remember that we are what we are . . .

The 1973 Trojan Yearbook staff strived to record the events of the year 1973 so that someday in the future all who read this book can remember how we passed the time. As time flew by and our book emerged, we had experienced many happenings together. Although the staff stuck together through all the hectic deadlines, we still needed help from other sources. To those people who offered their talents I would like to express my appreciation.

Through all the rough times that we somehow survived there was always one person to whom we turned to for guidance. Mr. Angelo, we thank you for being there. I especially thank you for being there when I needed your help.

Without photographs a yearbook would not be possible. Mr. Ken Cook, Cook's Photography, Mr. Gene Jones, Hurl Swartz Studios, and Mr. Bob Rood Jr., Dolly and Bob's Photography all deserve thanks for the great pictures they captured of Alisal.

I particularly thank Mr. Ken Cook and Mr. Clay Peterson of the Salinas Californian for the many extra hours they devoted to this yearbook.

The administration helped a great deal to assist the staff in any way they possibly could. My deepest thanks go to Mr. William Kearney and Mrs. Beverly David.

This year's exceptional staff was more than just fellow workers. To me we were a family, loving and hating one another while striving toward the same goal. My deepest thanks go to some very special staff members: GeorgeAnn Wence, ads, Fay Bradshaw, activities, Janice Haydon, organizations, Debbie Sims, classes, and Tom Valdriz all combined their individual talents toward the creation of this book. To all my staff members I am grateful for their devotion and efforts at deadline time. Thank you staff.

There are several people who contributed to the very soul of this book. I would like to acknowledge and thank them, for without their talents such a book would not be possible. Thank you Cheryl Madox, Muriel Quintero, Duane Stevens, and Al Chin for contributing your artistic talents to the book. Thank you Mr. Horsley, Kirt Andrus, and Mr. Poulsen for your encouragement and guidance throughout the year.

It is with sadness that I leave Alisal High School. In my heart I cherish all the wonderful memories I accumulated throughout my four years here. Thank you to all the people who helped the staff and me in any way. I appreciated it very much as only an out-going editor could know.

Sincerely,

Rita Morales

"This is the end,
Beautiful friend,
This is the end,
My only friend,
This is the end of our elaborate plans,
The end of everything that stands,
The end."
